

Kiku Dusk's Terms of Service

You have come across my page and want to commission me, thank you! I am happy you even considered it and got this far in your own curious search about me! There are just a few rules and regulations about working together with me that I need to write out so we are all on the same page!

All clients must be 18+ to commission/buy from me!!!

Commissions

- I retain the right to use any design/art I make to promote myself and my work. I will ask permission from you, the client, about tagging you on specific social media after completing the commission.
- My Watermark STAYS on my pieces. They are made small with the transparency lowered for viewers sake. When posting commission pieces/designs to social media, I will make the watermark bigger so people do not steal them for their own.
- I require payment upfront through the accepted forms (I.e. paypal, venmo, kofi) before I start working on your commission.
- Clients are allowed up to five (5) revisions on one piece. If revisions exceed the number allowed, I will charge additional amounts depending on the complexity of the revision.
- My prices are non-negotiable, when asking for a quote, the price I give you is the price you pay.
- When posting my art, or using it for yourself (I.e profile pictures, banners) please credit me! This can be in the post of the image, or in your bio.
- Do NOT repost my art without proper credit.
- I will NOT draw anything that can/would pertain to: racism, LGBTQIA+-phobia, xenophobia, ableism, pedophilia, or sexism. This also means I will not allow any and all characters that I draw/design to be used for: racism, LGBTQIA+ -phobia, xenophobia, ableism, pedophilia, or sexism. If found that my work is used for such, you will be reported, blocked, black listed, and revoked of rights of specific character.

- I DO NOT do trades unless we are mutuals on at least one (1) form of social media.
- I DO NOT do collaborations unless we are mutuals on at least one (1) form of social media.
- When doing commissions, I will send you updates during the sketch, lineart, and flat color phases if applicable. I will send updates upon reasonable request.

Adopts

- All adopts are as they come in design. Unless I am commissioned further for adding or changing designs/details to an adopts design, I will not add or take away what is shown in the listing.
- Once the adopt character is sold, with credit to the design, it is yours! If found out and proven that you are using said adopt for bigoted reasons (refer to line 8 in Commissions) you will not only be revoked from using said character, but also blocked, and blacklisted from me and any further transactions.
- Prices for adopts are FINAL. There are no negotiations or trading involved with my adopt designs.
- All Payments for adopts are through my approved forms (i.e. paypal, venmo, kofi)
- When purchasing an adopt, you will be given any and all art associated with that character. All I ask is that when posting about said adopt, I am given proper credit as the designer.
