

Serial Killers Mafia

Mafia:

That2User- You are Jeffrey Lionel Dahmer, also known as the Milwaukee Cannibal. After murdering and eating a total of 17 people, mostly men and boys, you gained a reputation that horrified people around the globe. Because you often ate the bodies of your victims, therefore disposing of the bodies, you are the everynight Janitor. Each night you carry out the night kill, you will hide the body of your victims. You win with the mafia.

Savant- You are Albert Fish also known as "The Grey Man" and had many other nicknames. Albert Fish was a serial killer, rapist, pedophile, and cannibal. While he only confessed to three murders, he had been linked to many other murders and crimes, and was famously known for writing a letter to the mother of Grace Budd, describing the death and subsequent cannibalism of her daughter to her. You are thus the mafia messenger. You may write any message you want each night and send it to a player of your choice. You win with the mafia.

Town:

Supadudz- You are Theodore Robert Cowell (Ted Bundy). Ted Bundy was considered very handsome, and manipulative. He could transform himself into a friendly conversationalist, and would commonly offer women rides, just to drive them to remote areas and kill them. Because you are considered one of the more popular and most renowned serial killers, known for being charismatic and elusive escaping authorities custody twice, you are the popular townie. Until Mylo/Lylo, you will require one extra vote to lynch. You win with the town.

Wylted- You are Ricardo Munoz Ramirez (Richard Ramirez)., also known as the Night Stalker. Richard was known for killing 13 victims, but he was most known for how brutal he was towards his victims, using tire irons on young women, and stomping on the face of an older woman to death. During his trial he became fascinated with satanism. Thus you are the "Atheist". Each night you may choose to join either the town, or the mafia. You don't have to choose right away, but once you make a choice you cannot change your win condition. If you choose mafia, you will not be included in the mafia PM though you will still align with them. Mafia will be informed of you joining them, and you will be informed of them, but will not be able to join the discord until death. You will have a role waiting for you that is different based on the affiliation you choose, but you will not be informed of your role until you choose. You can choose to waive this ability each night until you are ready to make a decision, however, if the game ends or you die before making a choice, you will automatically lose as a third party. For now, you win with no one.

(If town) You are the stalker (tracker), true to your nickname, you may stalk your victims, tracking them and seeing who they visit at night. This ability is 2x.

(If mafia) You are the Brutalizer (Strongman) known for leaving victims utterly unrecognizable . If your team has you carry the night kill you will pierce any protections that may exist.

Austin- You are Edward Theodore Gein (Ed Gein), also known as the “Butcher of Plainville”. Ed Gein lived in deplorable conditions after his mother died, and is the basis for the popular movie “psycho”, “The Texas Chainsaw Massacre” as well as the television show “Bates Motel”. Ed Gein was famous for making objects out of his victims. You are thus the inventor! You can make and send to another player the following items, once per night. You will know the functions of your items, but the person receiving them will only be told what the item is and not what it does.

1x Mary Hogan's Face Mask: The receiver of this mask may choose to put it on, and become a hider for the night. Using this item will forfeit any other abilities they may have.

1x Belt of Nipples: The receiver of this belt will feel pretty, and motivated, gaining a second use to their night action abilities that night, assuming they have one.

1x Chair Covered in Human skin: The receiver of this chair may use this to rest and recover an extra shot to any limited time use abilities, though they won't be able to use it until the following night. They may not use this chair the same night they use another ability.

1x Human Skull Soup Bowl: The receiver of this soup bowl, if they choose to use it, will drink from it and get sick, role blocking themselves for the night.

You win with the town.

Casey_Risk- You are Harold Shipman, also known as “Dr. Death”. As the only recorded British doctor to be recorded as a serial killer, your MO was to kill Elderly patients by prescribing fatal doses of drugs. Even though Harold Shipman was a killer, he still did save lives at his discretion, and seemed to only be fascinated with killing the elderly. You are thus the odd night doctor. On odd nights you feel like saving lives, and even nights, you feel villainous enough to let your patients die. You win with the town.

iLikepie1/2- You are Dean Corll and Elmer Wayne Henly, also known as “The Houston Mass Murderers”. While Dean Corll was the mastermind behind most of the murders, he had two accomplices, Elmer Wayne Henley (who would ultimately end up killing Corll) and David Owen Brooks, though Brooks was of small scale help and only helped murder one victim, Henly helping murder up to 6 of Corll's 28. Since this was one of the earliest serial killers to have been known for using an accomplice, you are two players in this game instead of one. You will show up on the player list as two players, one of your lives associated with Dean, the other associated with Elmer. You don't have any night action abilities, and are essentially vanilla, but as long as both of your characters are still alive, you will be able to vote twice. Night actions performed against you will have to be chosen towards the appropriate version of yourself. Both your lives win with the town.

Bullish- You are John Wayne Gacy Also known as "The Killer Clown". You were notable for killing 33 people, mostly children. Your method was to dress as a clown, and trick young boys into handcuffing themselves. Once they were handcuffed, you would perform your atrocities and mutilations. You are thus the 2x roleblocker. Twice during the game you may roleblock a player preventing them from using their action that night. You win with the town.

Whiteflame- You are Aileen Wuornos, a female Serial Killer who targeted men on the Highways of Florida for prostitution. She would shoot her victims, and later when on trial claim she was defending herself from being raped. Aileen was also very suicidal, and had attempted suicide multiple times unsuccessfully in her life prior to receiving lethal injection for her crimes. Because the nature of your crimes are sexual, and you have a fascination with suicide, you are the town Lover. Before the end of day phase one, you must select a player to tie your fate to. That player will die alongside you if you are ever to be lynched or killed. You win with the town.
