

Final Writing Tweaks

|   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|---|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 | Even the students are not motivated to take those kinds of lessons since they don't need to do so.                                                                                                                                                                           |
|   | The students aren't motivated to take those kinds of lessons since they don't need to do so.                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 2 | They force teachers to put a lot of heart into students although they do not.                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|   | They force teachers to put a lot of heart into caring for students although the administrators themselves do not .                                                                                                                                                           |
| 3 | Currently, to become a school leader, a teacher is required to work at a school which are in poor conditions and excel in a huge amount of paperwork.                                                                                                          |
|   | Currently, to become a school leader, a teacher is required to excel in doing a huge amount of paperwork and to work at a school which has poor conditions.                                                                                                    |
| 4 | They tend to think of public schools as sole institutions who are responsible for educating children's morality or behaviors.                                                                                                                                                |
|   | They tend to think of public schools as the sole institutions responsible for teaching children morality or how to behave.                                                                                                                                                   |
| 5 | We can solve the high density of Seoul at the same time.                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|   | We can solve the high density problem of Seoul city at the same time.                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 6 | Second benefit is that several Seoul Universities let students less competitive.                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|   | The second benefit is that several Seoul Universities let students be less competitive.                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 7 | You need to check students' attendance, make calls if some students are not there yet, supervise their morning study, discipline misbehaviors, inform students on some events of the day, and check whether everyone is feeling good and ready to start a day.               |
|   | You need to check students' attendance, make calls if some students are not there yet, supervise their morning study, discipline misbehaving students, inform students of some events of the day, and check whether everyone is feeling good enough to start the day. |
| 8 | For example, if a student looks depressed or seems like suffering from too much stress, it's your job to deal with them.                                                                                                                                                     |

|    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|    | For example, if a student is depressed or is under too much stress, it's your job to deal with that issue.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 9  | First, many teachers can get worn out from catching up trends and changing their teaching styles all the time.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|    | First, many teachers can get worn out by following trends and changing their teaching styles all the time. First, many teachers can get worn out by catching up with trends and changing their teaching styles all the time. *catch up with someone/something catch up on something(the things you missed) catch up to somebody |
| 10 | About four years ago, so-called "smart-education" was a huge trend and every single one of schools bought lots of expensive iPads.                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|    | About four years ago, so-called "smart-education" was a huge trend and every single one of the schools bought lots of expensive iPads.                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 11 | I strongly believe that education needs to be the long-term plans, which need a long time to get proper feedback and adjustment.                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | I strongly believe that education departments should make long-term plans, which need a long time to get proper feedback and adjustment.                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 12 | As juvenile delinquency and school bullying become more serious and common in Korea, the most creepy thing in teachers' work is not to teach their subject matter and do paper works. It is to deal with affairs about personal and social relationships; student-student, student-teacher, parents-teacher relationship.                                      |
|    | As juvenile delinquency and school bullying become more serious and common in Korea, the most frustrating thing to teachers is not to teach their subject matter, but to deal with affairs about personal and social relationships; student-student, student-teacher, parents-teacher relationship.                                                            |
| 13 | On the contrary, Canadian principal is the final discipliner for problem maker students or parents.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|    | On the contrary, Canadian principals are the final discipliners for problem students or parents.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

|    |                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|----|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 14 | Though homeroom teacher says constant disciplines, a student doesn't listen to him/her and make any effort to change his/her behavior or words.                                           |
|    | Though a homeroom teacher constantly disciplines students, they don't , -.                                                                                                                |
| 15 | As an English teacher, I have thought this matter seriously and come up with some ideas to improve this situation.                                                                        |
|    | As an English teacher, I have thought of this matter seriously and come up with some ideas to improve this situation.                                                                     |
| 16 | Most people touch very frequently and maintain little personal distances. In this culture, we are too close to each other and depend on each other for individual's life.                 |
|    | Most people are very involved with each others' lives and maintain little personal space. In this culture, we are too close to each other and depend on each other for individual's life. |
| 17 | Teachers' works are mainly three parts : counseling, teaching, and public officer working, and it means teachers can not focus on their original roles of teaching.                       |
|    | Teachers' work is mainly composed of three parts : counseling, teaching, and public documents, and it means teachers can not focus on their original roles of teaching.                   |
| 18 | In public schools, teachers are very busy to take care of the students instead of their parents                                                                                           |
|    | Secondary school teachers are very busy, because they have to take care of the students instead of their parents                                                                          |
| 19 | By regulating this law, teachers can pay attention to their own teaching                                                                                                                  |
|    | By making this law, teachers can pay attention to their own teaching.                                                                                                                     |
| 20 | Actually many official documents, however, let a lot of teachers doubt themselves as they themselves are real teachers or not.                                                            |
|    | Actually many official documents, however, force a lot of teachers to doubt whether they themselves are real teachers or not.                                                             |
| 21 | What makes me intimidated is the ever-worse relationship between the students and me or their parents and me.                                                                             |

|  |                                                                                                                           |
|--|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  | What makes me intimidated is the ever-worsening relationship between the students and me or between their parents and me. |
|--|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Korean Romanization Converter

Author's Choice WTF? What's the Fix?

| Name    | Sentence                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|---------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Karen   | They were so close that they lived together in a big, dotted mushroom house.Adjective Word Order quiz 1https://www.englishclub.com/grammar/adjectives-order-quiz.htmquiz 2https://www.esolcourses.com/content/exercises/grammar/adjectives/adjectiveorder/adjective-order-quiz-1.html |
| Jin     | She enjoys listening to songs, one day she wanted to join the club.She enjoys listening to songs. One day she wanted to join the club.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Soo Jin | Here is the perfect loneliest girl in the crowded.Here is the loneliest girl in the crowd.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |

Karen-Sujin (1-7)

Bella - Lia (8-14)

Jin - Lilly (15-21)

Edward - Hyein (22-28)

Julia - Ella (29~36)

Celeste - Mary (37~43)

Author's Choice Writing Tweaks

|   |                                                                                         |
|---|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 | They were always cared about one another.                                               |
|   | They always cared about one another.                                             |
| 2 | One day a big and mean tiger went to the forest and started to captivate small animals. |

|    |                                                                                                                       |
|----|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|    | One day a big, mean tiger went to the forest and captured small animals.                                              |
| 3  | The tiger with his red and mean eyes...                                                                               |
|    | The tiger with his mean, red eyes...                                                                                  |
| 4  | Here is the perfectly loneliest girl in the crowded.                                                                  |
|    | Here is the loneliest girl in the crowd.                                                                              |
| 5  | Actually we often forget small preciousness of daily lives.                                                           |
|    | Actually we often forget the preciousness of small things in our daily lives.                                         |
| 6  | Only those who are satisfied with their own life shines brilliantly in oneself.                                       |
|    | Only those who are satisfied with their own lives shine brilliantly in themselves.                                    |
| 7  | Life can be a deficiency if I focus on what I don't have now, but life can be a present what I already have.          |
|    | Life can be lacking if I focus on what I don't have now, but life can be a present if I focus on what I already have. |
| 8  | She could see and laugh with them, but in her mind, something was blocking her from them.                             |
|    | She could see them and laugh with them, but she felt deeply isolated in her heart.                                    |
| 9  | By the age of 16, Dorothy was an expert at deceiving her emotions.                                                    |
|    | By the age of 16, Dorothy became an expert in hiding her emotions.                                                    |
| 10 | Her success would be on its way the moment she stands in front of the camera.                                         |

|    |                                                                                                                        |
|----|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|    |                                                                                                                        |
|    | Her success would be on its way the moment she stood in front of the camera.                                           |
| 11 | The eyes of the dog and hers met.                                                                                      |
|    | The eyes of the dog and those of Dorothy met.                                                                          |
| 12 | However, after meeting my husband, things have been slowly changed.                                                    |
|    | However, after meeting my husband, things have slowly changed.                                                         |
| 13 | He finishes his work almost as early as I                                                                              |
|    | He finishes his work almost as early as I do                                                                           |
| 14 | Conversations make my life more relieved and fun.                                                                      |
|    | Conversations make my life more relaxed and interesting.                                                               |
| 15 | I,as a mother was curious about what made her motivated to be a fan of BTS, so I tried to find the world of BTS.       |
|    | As her mother, I was curious about what made her motivated to be a fan of BTS, so I tried to explore the world of BTS. |
| 16 | There was few who answered yes.                                                                                        |
|    | There were few who answered yes.                                                                                       |
| 17 | BTS and ARMY are experts in speaking their voices through SNS.                                                         |
|    | BTS and ARMY are experts in expressing their opinions through SNS.                                                     |

|    |                                                                                                                                                   |
|----|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 18 | However to me, I always try to avoid the passage where dogs or cats are already playing around and use detour to escape from the situation        |
|    | To me, however, I always try to avoid the passage where dogs or cats are already playing around. Also I use detours to escape from the situation. |
| 19 | Until then I had a good relationship with the dog, so I couldn't imagine and avoid being bitten by the dog!                                       |
|    | Until then I had a good relationship with the dog, so I couldn't imagine being bitten by the dog!                                                 |
| 20 | But as time goes by, the phobia was expanded, leading to a phobia of all kinds of animals.                                                        |
|    | But as time goes by, the phobia of dogs was expanded to all kinds of animals.                                                                     |
| 21 | I have never succeeded yet.                                                                                                                       |
|    | I have not succeeded it yet.                                                                                                                      |
| 22 | Instead, you should try to look at what is inside in the appearance                                                                               |
|    | Instead, you should try to look at what is inside, not the appearance.                                                                            |
| 23 | But, what I am eager to do is to go to India to experience new culture and knowledge.                                                             |
|    | But, what I am eager to do is to go to India to experience new culture and widen background knowledge.                                            |
| 24 | With full of energy, I can protect myself and have a meaningful time there.                                                                       |

|    |                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|    |                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|    | Full of energy, I can protect myself and have a meaningful time there.                                                                                                                                   |
| 25 | These make me feel like having a healthy meal at a temple.                                                                                                                                               |
|    | These make me feel like I am having a healthy meal at a temple.                                                                                                                                          |
| 26 | I went to 1984 Napoli near BUFS without a big expectation.                                                                                                                                               |
|    | I went to 1984 Napoli near BUFS without high expectation.much                                                                                                                                        |
| 27 | I felt this place different from the one in Seomyeon                                                                                                                                                     |
|    | I felt that this place was different from the one in Seomyeon.                                                                                                                                           |
| 28 | I have tried einspanner and it was the best one ever!                                                                                                                                                    |
|    | Her einspanner was the best one I have ever tried.                                                                                                                                                       |
| 29 | It just takes about 10 minutes to work on foot                                                                                                                                                           |
|    | It just takes about 10 minutes to get there on foot.                                                                                                                                                     |
| 30 | While walking to work, I meet students friendly saying hello to me. It lets me pleasant for work.                                                                                                        |
|    | On the way to work, I meet friendly students saying hello to me. It makes me pleasant for work.It is a pleasant way to (start my day, go to work, ...)It makes me look forward to going to work. |
| 31 | ...in which the Northeast Asia Tourism Park has been being built.                                                                                                                                        |
|    | ...in which the Northeast Asia Tourism Park is being built.                                                                                                                                              |

|    |                                                                                                                      |
|----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 32 | It is no problem to meet them. But off the work I hang around in a slanted or faded T-shirt without any makeup.      |
|    | It was no problem to meet them. But when I'm off work I hang around in a shabby or faded T-shirt without any makeup. |
| 33 | What has driven myself to here?                                                                                      |
|    | What has driven myself here?What has driven me here?                                                             |
| 34 | ...in one of the poorest towns in Busan.                                                                             |
|    | in one of Busan's poorest townsAreasneighborhoods                                                        |
| 35 | However, I became to know that                                                                                       |
|    | I got/came to know that.                                                                                             |
| 36 | However, I think it differently.                                                                                     |
|    | I think it is different.However, I think differently.However, I think about it differently.              |
| 37 | we all are little short of patients diagnosed terminally ill.                                                        |
|    | we are just short of being like terminally ill patients.                                                             |
| 38 | we are sure to know the last day will come without any notice regardless our plan or will                            |
|    | we are sure to know the last day will come without any notice regardless of our plan or will                         |

|    |                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|----|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 39 | That leads me to conjure up an odd idea that what if I hold up my own funeral before my death                                                                                                         |
|    | That leads me to conjure up an odd idea, 'what if I hold/conduct my own funeral before my death?'                                                                                              |
| 40 | At hearing his or her obituary, finally we reschedule finding time to meet the person and show our affection and gratitude toward the one.                                                            |
|    | After reading/seeing their obituary, we finally set a new time to meet the person and showed our affection and gratitude toward them/that person.                         |
| 41 | We've seen many news that children kill their parents, parents kill their own children, and people kill their own siblings and cousins.                                                               |
|    | We've seen a lot of news in which~We've seen news stories in which ~                                                                                                                       |
| 42 | After she commit murder without a special reason, she went back to a marketplace to get a refund the items which she had bought in order to use for murdering her ex-husband.                         |
|    | After she had committed murder without a special reason, she went back to a marketplace to get a refund for the items which she had bought to use for killing/murdering her ex-husband. |
| 43 | She is criticized not only because of killing her ex-husband, but mainly because of acting abnormal behaviours                                                                                        |
|    | She is criticized not only because of killing her ex-husband, but mainly because of acting abnormally/ abnormal behaviours                                                                     |

Writing #2: Author's Choice

| Name    | Topic                                  |
|---------|----------------------------------------|
| Lily    | My Biggest Phobia of Chihuahua         |
| Julia   | My commute to work                     |
| Ella    | My History Drives Me Here              |
| Karen   | A Fairy Tale for Children              |
| Lia     | Random Short Story                     |
| Jin     | The Reasons I am Studying BTS          |
| Celeste | An invitation to my funeral            |
| Bella   | What would you rate 10 out of 10? Why? |
| Edward  | Don't judge anyone by their appearance |
| Mary    | Koh, Yu-jeong: the Stranger            |
|         |                                        |
|         |                                        |

Jeff's Megalist of Food for Thought Questions

Korean Romanization Converter

Identity Writing - WTF? What's the Fix?

| Name  | Sentence                                                                                                                                          |
|-------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Julia | I love writing, but it requires lots of energy and it is time-consuming. That's why I suspend writing now.stopped for now (the moment) |

|         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|---------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|         | I've taken a break fromI'm not writing these days                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Edward  | After I married, I have been trying to put 100% effort into not bothering my wife. Since I got married, I have been trying to put 100% effort into not bothering my wife.                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Karen   | I can find heads of lettuce with some holes and dry cabbages in his garden.The vegetables are so fresh that I can enjoy them without seasonings.I want to plant and raise animals in my yard like them after I am retired.Everybody knows that healthy food makes you happy and brings you healthy mind.gives you a healthy mindmentally strong |
| Soo Jin | At a whole new place, I could relieve myself relax and also recharge myself with invigorating energy. At a whole new place, I could relax and recharge myself with invigorating energy.                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Lily    | Then twice or three times a week I have been trying to participate in zumba class. The two or three times a week I have been trying to participate in zumba class.                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Lily    | I found that Ethiopia Yirgacheffe, Kenya AA and Panama Esmeralda Gesha are the best coffee that fit my taste. I found that Ethiopia Yirgacheffe, Kenya AA and Panama Esmeralda Gesha are the best coffees that fit my taste.the coffees that best fit my taste                                                                                                                    |
| Jin     | Reading articles about people also gives me a lot of idea to awake my mind. Reading articles about people also gives me a lot of ideas to open my mind.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Ella    | When I was a teenager, I didn't enjoy any outdoor activities since I hated moving my body parts for exercising.moving my body and exercisingloved relaxing and doing nothing indoors.When I was a teenager, I didn't enjoy any physical activities since I loved staying calm and static indoors.                                                                          |
| Ella    | I changed my mind to start outdoor activities to activate my life.I started to find out that outdoor sports could invigorate and enrich my life.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |

|         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|---------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Jin     | It is a good exercise to all ages people. It is a good exercise for people of all ages.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Hye In  | I registered for middle school teacher training courses, even elementary ones. I registered for middle school teacher training courses, and even elementary ones, too.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Bella   | There are so many things I started and then quit, just to name a few, such as guitar, salsa dance, piano, taekwondo and so on. There are so many things I started and then quit, just to name a few, such as guitar, salsa dance, piano, taekwondo and so on.                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| celeste | There are so many roles we have to play in one's life and so many stories and advice from others, which time to time lead oneself toward a wrong place. There are so many roles I have to play in my life and I am bombarded with advice from others about what to be and what to do. That all smothers me with duties, wants and desires related to what others insist I should do. From time to time, it muffles my inner voices leading me to a wrong destination. |
| celeste | In solitary hours, I could tell what I really want from what others want from me and clearly map my soul. In solitary hours, I could tell what I really yearn for from what I am supposed to do to meet others' expectations. It definitely inspires me to clearly map my future and head to the destination I want to explore.                                                                                                                                       |
|         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |

TTP Secondary Sentence Tweaks - July 11

|   |                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|---|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 | However, appearance is not important regarding tasty.                                                                                                                                                         |
|   | However, appearance is not important with regard to taste. when it comes to taste appearance does not affect the taste. has little to do with taste has no effect on taste |
| 2 | Even if you were poor or not clean enough your body so you're stinky, it doesn't matter for your dog.                                                                                                         |
|   | Even if you were poor or did not clean your body enough so you're stinky, it doesn't matter to your dog.                                                                                                      |
| 3 | Rather than I got trapped for a long time, I chose to throw my expectation away and start new learning.                                                                                                       |
|   | Rather than being trapped for a long time, I chose to throw my expectation away and start new learning.                                                                                                       |
| 4 | I take an overnight trip to near areas every season.                                                                                                                                                          |
|   | I take an overnight trip to nearby areas every season.                                                                                                                                                        |
| 5 | By experiencing diverse cultures, my sight has grown up to see the world in a special way.                                                                                                                    |
|   | By experiencing diverse cultures, my viewpoints have been broadened to see the world in a special way.                                                                                                        |

|    |                                                                                                                                                                      |
|----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 6  | However, as time goes by, I realized there was no absolute good or bad things in a whole life.                                                                       |
|    | However, as time went by, I realized there was no absolute good or bad things in my entire life.                                                                     |
| 7  | Korean mother usually have a dream before giving a birth,                                                                                                            |
|    | Korean mothers usually have a dream before giving birth,                                                                                                             |
| 8  | I don't want to stay to be the same, I try to find out new stimuli.                                                                                                  |
|    | I don't want to stay the same, so I try to find new stimuli.                                                                                                         |
| 9  | There are a lot of zumba dances according to the music that would be used in the dance, for example, cumbia, salsa, and merengue.                                    |
|    | There are a lot of different zumba dance routines, each (of which is) based on the music that would be used in that dance, for example, cumbia, salsa, and merengue. |
| 10 | With all the attractions zumba make, I try my best not to skip zumba class                                                                                           |
|    | With all the attractions zumba provides, I try my best not to skip zumba class→ With all the pleasure zumba provides, I try my best not to skip zumba class      |
| 11 | The barista there recommended me adding sugar when I drink Espresso.                                                                                                 |
|    | The barista there recommended adding sugar when I drink Espresso.                                                                                                    |
| 12 | They don't complain against their cleaning duty.                                                                                                                     |
|    | They don't complain about their cleaning duty.                                                                                                                       |
| 13 | When I come back home, my home keeps clean most of the time.                                                                                                         |

|    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|----|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|    | When I come back home, my home is clean most of the time.                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 14 | However, I felt hurt on the instant.                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|    | However, I felt hurt at the instant.                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 15 | That's why I encouraged her to be always calm as much as possible, so she can focus on family thing and bearing my daughter.                                                                                                                        |
|    | That's why I encouraged her to be always as calm as possible, so she can focus on family things and rear my daughter.→ That's why I encouraged her to always be as calm as possible, so she could focus on family things and raise my daughter. |
| 16 | My former experiences have taught me this habit is totally helpful to me,                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    | My former experiences have taught me that this habit is totally helpful for me,                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 17 | My dream used to become an artist or a fashion designer                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|    | My dream used to be becoming an artist or a fashion designer                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 18 | During the limited class hours, it is hard to give lessons to suit for all the levels.                                                                                                                                                              |
|    | During the limited class hours, it is hard to give lessons suitable for all levels.                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 19 | I enjoy improvising story and making people funny                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|    | I enjoy improvising a new story and letting people have fun.making up a story on the spotoff the top of my headthink on my feet                                                                                                         |
| 20 | Students beg me for restarting the story.                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    | Students beg me to restart the story.                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

|    |                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|----|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 21 | Moreover, I think that a person is a mere sum-up of one's collective experience.                                                                                                           |
|    | Moreover, I think that a person is a mere sum of their collective experience.                                                                                                              |
| 22 | When I feel like I have a burnout from all of the things around me, I usually make a plan for a trip to a place where I never have been before.                                            |
|    | When I feel like I am burnt out from all of the things around me, I usually make a plan for a trip to a place where I have never been before.                                              |
| 23 | I am deeply in love playing tennis now. It let me know what the pleasure of playing sport with other people is.                                                                            |
|    | I am deeply in love with playing tennis now. It lets me know what the pleasure of playing sports with other people is.                                                                     |
| 24 | I have joined a book club near my place and with them I have read many books of authors otherwise I would never meet.                                                                      |
|    | I have joined a book club near my place and with the book club members I have read many books of authors I would never have met otherwise.never would have metwould have never met |
| 25 | It helps me refresh                                                                                                                                                                        |
|    | It helps me feel refreshed.                                                                                                                                                                |
| 26 | My brother was protecting me from their dog saying "Go away. Stay out of my little sister,"                                                                                                |
|    | My brother was protecting me from their dog saying "Go away. Stay away from my little sister,"                                                                                             |

