Landmark World Book Day

World book day at Landmark International school

On March 2nd a large crowd swarms around the legendary Landmark awaiting for the wonderful World Book Day to begin. Landmark, known as the best school in Europe, is now holding the precious celebration...World Book Day!

What is World Book Day?

World Book Day is a worldwide event that you celebrate by dressing up as a character from a book. This year's topic is Horrible Harry Potter. Harry Potter is a student from Hogwarts school who I have previously interviewed at the age of twelve. Our small chit chat about his parents had him in tears by the end.

Landmark Students

Landmark has over a 1000 students in its walls and all are well educated. This fact is all thanks to the wonderful Mr Turnbull Jones who is currently the Headmaster of Landmark International school and its amazing teachers and staff.

Recommended Books

Harry Potter

Harry Potter is a very popular book but in my opinion, Harry is a horrible, attention seeking boy. But over all his book has its properties. The seven book series is very popular and is about a trio (which I have met before) that go on an adventure to kill You Know Who. But it's not that easy...

Keeper Of The Lost Cities

This is an amazing series about a girl called Sophie whose life changes when she meets a mysterious boy called Fitz and she then discovers a world where she really belongs. But not everyone is thrilled with her "homecoming". Sophie has secrets buried deep in her mind that other people desperately want. That some people might even kill her for...

Ministry Catastrophe

What happened at the Ministry?

On Level 5, Department of Magical Experiments & Tests, a horrible experiment has gone wrong and the entire department refuses to give me any information. Although Mrs Egcome, on Level 2, is in charge of the Floo Powder Department, she claims “The horrifying creature looked like a green blob and it wiggled all around our floor –luckily it wobbled right into one of the fireplaces. I had enough common sense to throw Floo Powder in the fireplace and it screeched loudly and vanished. Now some people on Level 9 are searching for it.”

Quick Quotes Quill

Quick Quotes Quill

This ingenious invention is a Quill that writes whatever you ask it to. This means you can do an entire interview without touching the quill the entire time. It can also help you take notes in class. This acid green quill will brighten up your day within a second. All you need to do is suck the end and it will do your bidding.
