

STANFORD SIGMA CHI ALUMNI COMMITMENT TO
STANFORD'S HISTORIC SIGMA CHI HOUSE AND ITS CHAPTER

1. 1. Raised the funds to construct the current House at 550 Lausen Mall

Students and alumni raised the funds to build the current House for under $40,000 during the Great Depression. The House was constructed by 1938.

2. 2. Shared the House with the University During World War II

Most of the Sigma Chis volunteered to serve in the armed forces during World War II. We offered the House to the University for other students during that time.

3. 3. $32,070,000 Financial Commitment Since The 1976 Lease*

Current House brought into the lease	$16,500,000.00
Ground lease payments ($115,000 x 46)	$5,290,000.00
Maintenance/Capital Improvements (1976 – 2006) (est. at $75,000/yr.)	$2,250,000.00
2006 Complete renovation	$6,000,000.00
Capital Improvements/Maintenance (2006 – 2022) (est. at $125,000/yr.)	$2,000,000.00
TOTAL	$32,040,000.00
* All numbers are in 2022 values

1. Mentoring/Leadership Training

The Alpha Omega House Corporation, which owns Stanford's Historic Sigma Chi House, has maintained the most successful residential education program on campus.

- 12-member alumni board – meets with students four times per year
- Multi-Hour risk management training for all new residents before they move into the House
- Alumni/Sophomore Lunch – Homecoming weekend
- Mid-year risk management review – February
- Alumni/Senior Dinner – May
- Jobs program for all rising juniors and seniors and recent graduates
- Young alumni networking organization
- Funds up to 12 students to attend Sigma Chi's National Leadership Workshop training
- Funds a rising junior to attend Stanford's Horizon Program
- Sponsors high level Speakers Program
- Hosts Stanford's Premiere Leadership Training Program
- Networks with alumni of other student organizations, Greek and non-Greek
- Provides pro bono support to students in University administrative processes