Week 3 Responses

After reading the material and watching the video for the Week 3 education principles, answer all the questions below.

1. Pick one of your most effective teachers and write up a description of things that made that teacher so effective. Consider the aspects of teaching mentioned in this week's reading (knowledge, motivation, relationships and involvement).

2. New tutors are often concerned that they will not have the relevant knowledge necessary to teach the students. Plan what you can do if you feel that way with a student.

3. Name three specific behaviors of teachers that you can do to build an appropriate, positive relationship between you and your students.

4. As a tutor, how can you monitor your involvement with the students you teach?
