Day In The Life

I wake up and I immediately read away at my new identity that I've created over these past few months. I chug my water, get my sunlight, and then get to work. After getting 3-4 hours of undistracted quality work in, I waste no time in getting to the gym.

I crush every single workout. Every set and rep feels better and I feel the raw strength coursing through my veins. After 2 hours of clearing my head with a grueling workout, I get back to work with no time wasted in-between. I finish these 3 hours of work then have my first meal of the day.

The meal consists of steak, potatoes, and a choice of vegetables, This food gives me incredible power and the fire blood that will fuel me for the next day's torture sessions. I then finish the night with 2-3 more hours of work and then prepare to rest.

The day was conquered and I fulfilled my duty as a man because I set goals for today and CRUSHED them.
