

Hello Kait,

Your reel about "Why I am not dating" stuck out to me because I am 2 years out of a relationship and that helped me a lot.

As I was going through your website I found 2 key role-playing components that why people with the loving-situation as me don't click that buying-button.

I have a solution that top performing players like @jillianturecki use and as you can see her profile tells it all.

Are you interested in discussing further?
