

OFRGC

Grant Application

2025 Research Development

OFRGC is accepting grant application submissions for research supporting feminist communication scholarship in line with our mission. Grants are provided to individual researchers and do not allow for indirect costs. The maximum award amount per grant is $2500. All submissions must include this application form, responses (max 3pgs), and CV.

Submitter Name:

Proposal Title:

Membership Status (Check One):

- ☐ I have verified in advance that my OFRGC membership is current
☐ If not previously a member, I have submitted my membership fee at www.ofrgc.org

Applicant Category (Check One):

- ☐ 1. Bachelor's student
☐ 2. Master's Student
☐ 3. Ph.D. Student
☐ 4. Contingent Faculty
☐ 5. Tenure-Track / Tenured Faculty

If awarded a grant, I agree to submit, within one year of receipt, a one-page report detailing the status of the submitted project and use of funds to the Immediate Past President of OFRGC, Jenna N. Hanchey (jenna.hanchey@asu.edu). ☐ Yes ☐ No

1. Proposal: Describe the nature and goal of the project. Include content regarding the status of the project such as research questions, theoretical framework, methodology, rationale for project, etc.
2. Timeline: Provide a timeline for each phase and/or activity.
3. Budget: Detailed description of funds needed and their purpose. Please provide an itemized budget.
4. Contribution: Describe the benefit or contribution made to feminist scholarship in the field of Communication.
5. Additional Support: Discuss any other support for this project, including the amount. If not applicable, write "N/A."

Please be as thorough as possible in responding to the questions above. Completed applications should not exceed three pages, excluding the application form and submitter's curriculum vitae. Forward one document that includes the application form, answers, and vitae to Jenna N. Hanchey (jenna.hanchey@asu.edu) by May 1, 2025 at 11:59pm (PST).