

Connie May is a singer/ songwriter who is well-known for her vibrant energy and show-stopping performances. Writing in the genre of pop-r&b, May's intimate originals bring her story to the stage. Hardworking and determined, May strives to create honest narratives. With her evocative and powerful vocals, she will take you on a journey you're not soon to forget. Although her personality circles around being bubbly, in a professional setting she is known to be headstrong and reliable. She takes influence from other artists such as Demi Lovato, Ariana Grande, and Lianna La Havis. She has been lucky enough to work with Grammy award winning musicians and kicked off the beginning of 2023, with a successful first tour alongside the East Coast of Canada. Born and raised in Nova Scotia, Canada, May is now based in NYC.

May's background is primarily in pop-r&b. Starting formal musical theatre training in high school, in 2019 she won multiple first-place titles in the Kiwanis Music Festival, including Contemporary Jazz and Junior Musical Theatre. She was sent to compete in Junior Musical Theatre at the provincial competition and won first place in that as well. Throughout those years, she joined Neptune Theatre's Young Company, performing in many shows including Les Miserables, She Kills Monsters, A Midsummer Night's Dream, and the Canadian opening of My Side Of The Country. She continued her studies at the acclaimed Berklee College of Music, graduating in the spring of 2023 with a Bachelor of Music degree majoring in songwriting and minoring in musical theatre performance.

Website: luvconniemay.com

Instagram: luv\_conniemay