

Paper 2, Section B Practice Tasks

1. "People who save lives or help improve the lives of others are the true role models of today."
Write a newspaper article where you present your point of view on this statement.
2. "Physical fitness is not only one of the most important keys to a healthy body; it is the basis of dynamic and creative intellectual activity." -- John F. Kennedy --
Write a speech for a school assembly where you present your point of view on this statement.
3. 'Parents should make their children earn pocket money and should not give in to demands for expensive items such as mobile phones and designer clothes.'
Write the text for a leaflet where you present your point of view on this statement.
4. 'These days, there is no point in travelling to see the world: we can see it all on TV or on the Internet.'
Write an article for a teenage magazine in which you present your point of view on this statement.
5. 'The environment is precious. There are many habitats and animals we must take steps to protect. We have a responsibility to future generations on Earth.'
Write a formal letter to the editor of a newspaper where you present your point of view on this statement.
6. 'The government should invest more money in public transport as there are so many good reasons to use it.'
Write a letter to the editor of your local newspaper where you present your point of view on this statement.
7. 'Parents today are over-protective. They should let their children take part in adventurous, even risky, activities to prepare them for later life.'
Write an article for a newspaper where you present your point of view on this statement.
8. "Every local council should be expected to provide decent, high-quality services to support and care for homeless people in their area".
Write an article for a local newspaper where you present your point of view on this statement.