

Privacy Policy

Effective date: August 4, 2026 · Party Line by Highbeam Digital

Party Line does not create accounts, does not sell your data, and does not run ads. The only information that leaves your device is what is needed to connect you to other players during a game.

01

What We Collect

Party Line collects as little as possible.

Stored on your device only: Your display name and avatar choice are saved locally in your app. They never leave your device except as described below.

Transmitted during gameplay: When you join or host a game, your display name, avatar index, and in-game actions (letter guesses, drawing strokes, answers) are sent through our relay server so other players can see them. This data is transient: it exists only for the duration of the session and is not stored on our servers after the session ends.

We do not collect: email addresses, phone numbers, location, contacts, camera or microphone input, device identifiers, or any analytics data.

02

How We Use It

The only purpose of the data transmitted during gameplay is to make the game work. Your name appears on other players' screens. Your actions update the shared game state. Nothing more.

We do not use your data for advertising, profiling, or any purpose outside of running the game session you are part of.

03

Relay Server

Online games route through a relay server hosted on Railway (railway.app). Game session data passes through this server in real time and is not persisted to disk. Railway's own privacy policy governs how infrastructure logs are handled on their platform.

04

Third-Party Services

Party Line uses the following third-party services:

- Expo (EAS): Used to deliver app updates over the air. Expo may collect device metadata for update delivery purposes. See Expo's privacy policy at expo.dev.
- Apple App Store: Governed by Apple's privacy policy. Apple may collect purchase and crash data per their standard terms.

We do not integrate advertising networks, analytics SDKs, or social login providers.

05

Children

Party Line does not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13. The app does not require account creation or any personal information to play. If you believe a child has submitted personal information through the app, contact us and we will address it promptly.

---

06

Changes to This Policy

If we make material changes to this policy, we will update the effective date above. Continued use of the app after a change constitutes acceptance of the updated policy.
