- Educator Effectiveness Platform: A troubleshooting guide has been developed for districts that are struggling with finding all of their personnel in the new platform. Click here for the guide. For questions regarding the platform, contact Sandra Hurst at sandra.hurst@ade.arkansas.gov. See videos below for assistance
- SCHOOL SAFETY
 - Crisis Response Team Training: DESE has partnered with the National Organization for Victim Assistance (NOVA) to offer 3-day trainings for crisis teams in the management of crisis incidents within schools. Two sessions are being offered this fall at the NW Coop and Crowley's Ridge Coop, but Arch Ford will offer one in the Spring.
- FAMILY AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT
 - Family Engagement Facilitators on October 17 from 9-11 am at NWAESC. All building coordinators are encouraged to attend. District coordinators are also invited to attend.
- GT Program Approval: The annual Gifted and Talented Education Program Approval Application is an online form that must be submitted by October 15th. Each school district may access the application at the following link: <https://forms.gle/9Boy4zAF98UiS43Q7>
- AP Equipment and Materials Grants are available from DESE for any College Board-approved Advanced Placement course being taught at a high school that has not recently received a grant for the course. Since funds are limited, priority will be given to new AP courses that have not previously been offered at the school.
 - Grant awards will be a maximum of $1,000 each. For the purpose of this funding opportunity, materials are defined as instructional items (books, manipulatives, etc.) and equipment as any necessary device (graphing calculators, etc.) directly related to the curriculum of the College Board Advanced Placement course.
 - Apply here by no later than Friday, October 7, 2022. If a school is submitting more than one application (no more than three per high school), rank the applications according to priority for funding. Applicants will be notified of their application status by Tuesday, November 1, 2022.
