

Afrah Shafiq lives and works in the world of documentary film, visual art, multimedia and web projects sometimes, as artist, editor, writer, designer and at other times as a manager, producer and facilitator. She has a special interest in animation, digital illustration, and collage. When she is not glued to a computer, she makes glass mosaics - some of which can be seen here.