SB ; GET UNMATCHED RAW POWER IN MATTER OF DAYS

Here I am knocking bullies right and left with some moves I never dreamed of doing

Knocking 2 to 3 guys in a few minutes and still having the URGE to kill more.

The story started a few months ago when I fell in a really dark place.

You see I live in a dangerous neighbourhood where you are surrounded by negativity.

Thieves, bullies, and drugs were your daily life.

Unfortunately for me I grew up as a timid boy. Minding my own business having only one close friend that I grew up with.

Here is where my depression started, a few months ago he was shot and killed by a random gang member.

The reason... He just felt like shooting somebody.

That is where I saw myself become a hateful and negative version of myself.

I started spending all the days and weeks alone. Got addicted to drugs, had problems with my family.

And here is the final blow, hear this,

As I was going back home from school I saw some bikers coming my direction.

And when you feel that FEAR in your guts you know something bad is going to happen.

BAM 10 minutes later I am on the ground, BEATEN TO DEATH.

That's when I exploded. Emotionally BROKEN, mentally LOST and physically DAMAGED

4 months later, you wouldn't recognize me anymore.

Blasting with a monster aura.

FULLY REGENERATED and MORE.

My life had 180 turn,

I was feeling good in my skin, confidence boosted to the roof.

Everything that broke me down has shifted to masculinity and strength.

All of this because I discovered the John program that I am grateful for and I say it with all my heart GRATEFUL for it.

A skill pack from this underdog cage fighter that was DEMOLISHING all of his enemies.

Bigger than him, faster than him it didn't matter.

I learned in a few weeks how to not only defend myself but to abolish my enemies.

Better than 10 years of martial arts training

The secret to mastering the fighting skills of warriors

After finishing the program my reputation in the neighbourhood was 'THE GUY'

Any bullies or bad guys were disciplined by me.

I have in my disposition the BEST fighting skills I could ever have.

SB ; What never to do when aiming to be a pro PLUS the exact program to become the next Iniesta

Here I am playing a home game for my home town school doing my best to lead my team to win

Playing as a midfielder i had the most responsibilities in terms of tactics

Coordinating between defence and attack

I felt pride in that

Then ...

I saw some scouts from the biggest club in the city

Watching my moves and observing and analysing my skills

We ended up winning the game 2-0. Overall I was satisfied with our performance.

In the back of my head, I was ; what were the scouts' impressions of me ?

I asked the coach later and,

SHOCKER

The scouts were very disappointed in my level. They said that i had amateur potential

I have never thought that i was THAT BAD

It made me doubt myself, my coach, my club

It was a very big hit to my ego, as it really disrupted me.
But,

My pride couldn't accept it. My dream was too precious to give up on.

6 months later, we made an appearance in the regional tournament.

BEST MIDFIELDER IN THE TOURNAMENT

MOST ASSISTS

MOST SUCCESSFUL PASSES

I have won it all. Prestigious as it sounds. I 100% deserved it.

My skills were the key for my teammates to shine.

Getting rid of the defence was a piece of cake. My ball handling was on point

Great vision and magical control of the midfield made every defence crumble

And of course I paid back my debt to the scouts.

And I knew an offer was waiting for me.

But what made me the most happy,

Was my parents presence and look on their face after performing,

AT SUCH A HIGH LEVEL

What made me have this amazing performance ?

I followed a rigid program made by spanish youth coaches of FC BARCELONA

Made especially for midfielders

It gives the efficient practices and drills to follow

How to work on physicality, stamina and also skills with the ball
