

The Richard Williamson Award for Leadership

Criteria for Selection

The recipient must have achieved outstanding results in promoting the study of modern and classical languages in his/her community or region. Teachers, administrators, students, and community members are eligible for this award. Special consideration will be given to those persons using innovative approaches that actively involve constituencies not routinely supportive of second language learning.

Nomination Procedures

Names of nominees must be submitted by members of EMME or affiliated organizations such as AATs, or by administrators.

Nominations should be accompanied by statements that establish a clear rationale for the choice, and should include an outline of the candidate's achievements.

Evidence must be submitted of service to the school, community, and state or national organizations.

The nominator must submit all materials by the decided deadline (please see main awards page).
