

Creating A Logo In Canva

Step	Action	Graphic
1	Log onto the website: www.canva.com	 The screenshot shows the Canva homepage with a purple header. The main heading is "Bring learning to life" with a search bar below it. There are icons for various design tools like Docs, Whiteboards, Presentations, Social media, Videos, Print products, and Websites. Below this, there's a section "You might want to try..." with thumbnails for Design Docs, Get Ideas Flowing, Present with ease, and Customise your cover.
2	In the top search bar, type: "Podcast Logo"	 The screenshot shows the search results for "Podcast Logo templates". It displays a grid of 10 different podcast logo templates. The first template is a "Create blank" button. The others are various designs with microphones, sound waves, and text like "Dark Blue and Purple", "Brown Simple Ele...", "Yellow Simple Mo...", "Podcast I...", "Good Podcast", "We talk!", "GOTALK", and "PODCAST".
3	Decide whether you would like to create a template from start or customize an already existing template.
4	If you choose a template, click on the template. Then click on the button that says, "Customize This Template"	 The screenshot shows a preview of a "Pink Purple Flat Podcast Logo". It features a microphone icon with a pink and purple color scheme. The text "Good Podcast" is written in pink, and "good podcast for everyone" is written in a smaller font below it. There's a button that says "Customize this template".
5	There are many adjustments you can make to the existing template, which include: • Changing the text • Changing the location of text • Changing the color of text • Changing the "Elements" • Changing the color of "Elements" • Adding Elements	 The screenshot shows a customized podcast logo. It features a microphone icon with a blue and purple color scheme. The text "Cool Happenings" is written in a large, bold, blue font, and "In The Life Of A Junior High Principal" is written in a smaller font below it.
