Cara Welsh

Mrs. Welsh is a wife, mother and Commercial Lender residing in the City of Madison. She is a native to Madison but also a “boomerang.” For over a decade she lived, studied and worked in Auburn AL, Atlanta GA, and Birmingham AL before returning to the City of Madison to raise a family in the best public school system in the state. Mrs. Welsh received her bachelor’s from Auburn University and has pursued a career in finance since 2011. She is an active advocate for mental health and financial literacy. Her passions include running, cooking, hiking and all outdoor activities with her children and husband. Mrs. Welsh is also an Ambassador with the Madison Chamber of Commerce, an active member with the Huntsville/Madison County Chamber of Commerce and regular volunteer with Kids to Love.

“Everyday is a blessing to learn something new…and never forget the Golden Rule.”