

ALL PAYMENTS MADE THROUGH PAYPAL

AFTER YOUR COMMISSION:

You are free to post the art, use it as an icon, use in videos or livestreams, use in website layouts, etc. all with proper credit.

You may print the piece commissioned for personal use, but not commercially for mass content printing. If you wish to print the artwork for merchandise there will be a %30 increase to the initial commission cost.

My work may never be used for NFT, blockchain-related content, or cryptocurrency purposes, if you support NFTs i will decline and blacklist your contact.

WILL DO:

- fanart
- romantic couples
- self insert ships/OCxCanon
- furries and humans
- art of real people (ie. you, your friends, etc) in my art style

WON'T DO:

- realism
- certain fetish art
- hateful imagery
- offensive/problematic content
 - ie. Incest, pedophilia, bestiality, racist imagery, etc.
- complex mecha
- nsfw/suggestive work of real people
- content depicting traumatic events
- heavy gore (minor blood and injury is fine)
- depictions of self harm or suicide
 - this includes self harm scars on characters. I will still happily draw the character but for personal reasons can not include the scars in my art.

PLEASE NOTE: i am happy to draw suggestive or pinup art, but only to clients who are 18 and up, please know i may inquire about ID to ensure your age.

In any situation i have the right to deny your commission based on topic, this may be because it goes against TOS, i am not comfortable producing it, or i believe i won't be able to execute it properly due to my skill or understanding of the topic.

In the event of refund, whether issued by me or requested by you, i will keep a small percentage of the payment equal to the amount of work finished on the artwork, you will receive the rest returned to you as well as whatever work i have gotten done.

In most cases i take full payment before beginning the artwork, but i am more than happy to accommodate partial payment plans. Whether this be a 50% before i begin and 50% before the final shading/finishing stage of the artwork. For commissions over $75CAD i am also happy to split the cost up into intervals of 3 in the event you need to. In these events i will work alongside the payment given like so:

- first payment given, sketch/rough draft is finished and sent to you for approval
- second payment is given, i work on and finish lineart
- third payment and onward, i finish the colouring and shading of the artwork.

Whether you are paying in full or in increments i require full payment be completed before i finish and send you the full HD finished work.

I AM HAPPY TO WORK "OFF MENU!"

If you have an idea in mind you would like me to draw that doesn't fall under the categories on my listed sheet, feel free to inquire about it! I am more than happy to give you a price estimate for content not listed :>

If you are unsure whether i will draw the themes you have in mind for the piece, please just ask! The "will" and "won't" sections don't cover every possible topic so if you are unsure i will be more than happy to let you know if i can do it or not.

CHARACTER DESIGNS:

Please have a base idea prepared for your character! Whether that be an outfit you want them in, a personality description, or a mood board- i will need a starting point for your design and will aim to work closely with you based on the beginning concepts. I may request to talk over discord about the design since it's the quickest form of contact for what may include a lot of back and forth. I like to make sure the character is fully up to your expectations/needs so expect a lot of updates and don't be afraid to ask for corrections or changes during the process! Character designs may be used as OCs, personas, mascots, etc. please do not sell the character design as an adoptable afterwards. You are free to gift the design, or trade them, but please don't immediately sell them off for profit.

ONCE WORK HAS BEEN FULLY COMPLETED I DO NOT OFFER RETURNS OR REFUNDS.

I do my best to work closely with clients and often do check-ins during the process, so if you have any changes you want made please make sure to point them out DURING the process. If you would like minor changes made to pieces after i have finished them feel more than free to inquire about having it updated with minor edits, but know certain modifications may come with a small fee.

If the character you would like me to draw is a catboy you get a %5 discount <3
