

Illinois State Educator Conference

October 25, 2024 @ Illinois State University

This is no school day for you, but it is an awesome opportunity to experience!!!

This is one day conference held at ISU for future educators. We will provide transportation to and from the conference and meals on the way to the conference. Students will be able to attend breakout sessions intended to increase the students' interest in the career of teaching.

Please fill this form out and return it to the school counselor ASAP.
