

Dear Spitfire

MADE BY THE BETTER MOON

Hi spitfire, I have had a lotttt of time thinking on this and if I should or should not send it, but I honestly have no other option as in general I think you are genuinely one of the worst people to ever join the extended community. Your entire way of life, you public vents and rants, your inability to be seen and instead of talking to a therapist about it you bitch and moan on bluesky of all things on outlaw how sad you are, I wish I could feel sympathetic for you but you're honestly a pathetic fucking idiot. Knowingly supporting a grooming cheating piece of shit is genuinely insane, Jacob has been known for this since he sent moaning logs to a college student that he thought would be his forever. Continuing to talk to him even AFTER me showing you that he was crushing for you while he was in a relationship is purely batshit, because you strive to hold onto your bullshit power in the "roblox group" you describe our communities as. Your huge ego acting like a hero is insane to me, you are in active association with a man in his 20's in a primarily 14-15 aged community, who lets be honest here would be better off off of the internet and getting a job that's not taking up 12 hours of his day. Your little act on Outlaw was bullshit, age regressing in public and in people's direct messages are completely insane, aren't you like 17-18?? Grow the fuck up, get a job and go outside, make some friends, find a partner, go make yourself visible because your mentally ill persona of not being seen is completely bullshit and you know it. I tried convincing you for days to give up equinox and ban jacob, which in turn you and Dynamexed almost nuked it under my command like little dogs, but of course it makes sense considering you're close to akathisia, remember her allegations 🐶? While you actively helped Toast and the BBM, you turned into another Garp supporting, old degenerative, pathetic fuck in this community, and when the Org dies and Sunscarred gets completely molested, what will you do with your life then? Leave the online platform before you end up like Midnight sucking toasts cock for her college years who is majoring in ART by the way. No one likes an ageplaying piece of shit, you're the worst type of species to enter the ec and I genuinely hope some big white american company buys your data center and inflates the price to where you cannot afford it.

Anyway heres some fun evidence of jacob cheating on his girlfriend for spitfire, among other things, HAIL EQUINOX COMPANY!

@ jacob
