

Privacy Policy for Atlas Study Tracker Pro

Effective date: March 30, 2026

Atlas Study Tracker Pro respects your privacy.

Information We Collect

Atlas Study Tracker Pro stores study session data locally on your device, including session titles, categories, notes, dates, and durations.

How We Use Information

This information is used only to provide the app's core features, such as tracking study sessions, displaying history, calculating totals, and exporting or importing your own data.

Data Sharing

Atlas Study Tracker Pro does not sell your personal information and does not share your study data with third parties.

Cloud Sync

If optional cloud sync features are enabled in the future, synced data will only be used to provide backup and restore functionality for the user.

Children's Privacy

Atlas Study Tracker Pro is not directed to children under 13.

Data Security

Your locally stored data remains on your device unless you choose to export, import, or sync it yourself.
