

Engage- Let's Go

They are right outside. They are right outside.
Where had Krunch and Kraft gone? There- I can hear them. In the rafters.

“Hey! Guys we gotta- there’s all sorts of them out there!”

What are we gonna do? Run? We can’t get past them! We have nowhere else to go!
The roof. The roof! I can hear it groaning-cracking. That monster is gonna- The warped is going to break it.

Can’t stay here.

“The roof! Come down, we have to leave! We gotta- We gotta run! Right now!”

What if they get me?
They’re poisonous, I don’t want to be poisoned!
Where can I go? But I don’t want to end up like-

Bernese

I’m gonna be sick, I’m gonna-
If I make it to the cupboard again, would it hold? Could it keep me safe?
Or would it...

No, don’t look at them again. You can’t do anything. But maybe if I-

“Kraft!! Come down!”

Bernese, I’m sorry I should have.. I think I can- just hold on, let me try. Maybe if you’re not-Maybe you can... let me keep digging.

[ Nameless focuses his flux on Bernese and uses Stabilize while trying to get Kraft and Krunch to come back down and continues to try to dig the coyote free. ]
