

President-Elect

- This practice eliminates the need to vote for a president; only the president-elect and other officers are chosen each term. When an organization has a president-elect, that person assumes responsibility when the president is absent.
- Vice President is designated President-elect in bylaws of some organizations

Potential Language:

Article IV - Officers and Terms of Office

Section 1

The officers of the Organization shall be a President, a President-Elect, who shall succeed to the presidency at the end of his/her term, a Vice President, who shall become President-elect at the end of his/her term, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and an Executive Director. The Executive Director shall serve as a nonvoting member of the Executive Board.