Introduction

Due to the reauthorization of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA), most commonly known as ESSA, certain components are required to be included in planning for schoolwide programs and in the writing of a schoolwide plan. By completing the provided template, schools will develop a new plan or update current plans that will meet the new requirements.

The plan shall be developed or revised with the involvement of: (Check all that apply)

- Parents
- Other members of the community to be served
- Individuals who carry out the plan including teachers, principals, other school leaders, administrators, paraprofessionals present in the school
- Local Education Agency Representative's name:
- Tribal organizations present in the community (if applicable)
- Specialized instructional support personnel Representative's name:

The plan shall be available to the LEA, parents and the public; information in the plan should be in an understandable and uniform format and provided in a language that parents can understand.

If appropriate and applicable, the plan shall be developed in coordination and integration with other federal, state, and local services, resources, and programs, such as programs supported under ESSA, violence prevention programs, nutrition programs, housing programs, Head Start programs, adult education programs, career and technical education programs, and schools implementing comprehensive support and improvement activities or targeted support and improvement activities under section 1111(d).

The narrative sections in the template must be completed in sufficient detail to document how the component has been thoroughly and thoughtfully addressed. Schools must annually review the plan and revise, as necessary, based on student needs and the results of the evaluation to ensure continuous improvement. (ESEA section 1114(b)(3); 34 C.F.R. § 200.26(c)).

The budget implication sections must be sufficient in detail to show how Title I funds support the schoolwide program and provide students with a well-rounded education. These sections must match the information in the Consolidated Application Budget.

§1114(b):

Comprehensive Needs Assessment (CNA)

To ensure that a school's comprehensive plan best serves the needs of those children who are failing, or are at-risk of failing, to meet the challenging State academic standards, the school must conduct a comprehensive needs assessment. Through the needs assessment, a school must consult with a broad range of stakeholders, including parents, school staff, and others in the community, and examine relevant academic achievement data to understand students' most pressing needs and their root causes. (ESEA section 1114(b)(2); 34 C.F.R. § 200.26(a)). Where necessary, a school should attempt to engage in interviews, focus groups, or surveys, as well as review data on students, educators, and schools to gain a better understanding of the root causes of the identified needs.

Evidence: A systematic effort involving multiple stakeholders to acquire an accurate and thorough picture of strengths and weaknesses of the school community, thus identifying student needs through a variety of information-gathering techniques. A data analysis summary must be included which incorporates benchmarks used to evaluate program results. The results of your data analysis must guide the reform strategies that you will implement to improve instruction for all students.

Briefly describe the school's Comprehensive Needs Assessment (CNA) process.

Narrative:

The Costner Comprehensive Needs Assessment was created from the feedback from multiple stakeholder groups. The School Improvement Team reviewed the following data sources from 2018-2023:

- NC Report Card
- Reading and Math EOGs grades 3-5, including subgroup breakdowns (gender, ethnicity, EDS, LEP, SWD, & AIG)
- Science EOG, including subgroup breakdowns (gender, ethnicity, EDS, LEP, SWD, & AIG)

- School accountability growth
- iReady diagnostic for reading and math K-5
- mClass K-3
- EVAAS Teacher Effectiveness
- Student attendance, discipline, demographic, and retention data
- Teacher recruitment, retention, and attendance data
- North Carolina Teacher Working Conditions Survey & Parent feedback

Upon review of the data, the team looked for data trends, including strengths, weaknesses, achievement gaps in subject areas and subpopulations to develop the Title 1 Plan for the 2024-2025 school year. The school improvement team includes: principal, teacher leaders from each grade level, paraprofessionals, and parents.

Summarize the results and conclusions:

Narrative:

Costner has approximately 460 students enrolled in grades K-5, enrollment has continued to increase every year. African American and Hispanic subpopulations have doubled since 2019-2020. Free and reduced lunch percentages have risen from 36.71% to 53.25%. Average attendance rate is 92.95%.

Costner has increased its achievement score of 54 to a score of 59 and did meet growth for the 2022-2023 school year. For the last 2 years, reading proficiency has remained under 50% and math has improved to 55%. The subpopulations SWD and EDS have the largest disparities among students.

Component 1: §1114(b) (7)(A)(i): Opportunities For All Children

Provide a description of schoolwide reform strategies, that may include interventions that provide opportunities for all children, including each of the subgroups of students to meet the challenging state academic standards.

Evidence: Evidence-based strategies structured to identify needs and designed to raise the achievement level of all students on content standards. Provide information on how the selected strategies will increase student achievement in underperforming subgroups, if applicable. Include a description of how the reform strategies will be evaluated for effectiveness.

Narrative:

To increase overall proficiency depending on the budget, Costner will employ a full time content teacher, and 2 teacher assistants. The content teacher will provide instructional support to BT and veteran teachers in grades K-5. The role of the content teacher will include assisting teachers with data analysis in order to close achievement gaps and develop small groups, unpacking curriculum standards and district resources, model lessons, and helping teachers remediate small student groups in the classroom.

The teacher assistants will assist the teacher in providing small group instruction for leveled student support.

Budget Implications: teacher salary and 2 TA salary, supplies for teachers to create classroom manipulatives

Benchmark/Evaluation: PLC minutes, iReady, district pre & post assessments, progress monitoring, state level assessments

Component 2: §1114(b) (7)(A)(ii): Strong Well-Rounded Program

Provide a description of schoolwide reform strategies that: 1) use methods and instructional strategies that strengthen the academic program in the school; 2) increase the amount and quality of learning time; and 3) help provide an enriched and accelerated curriculum, which may include programs, activities, and courses necessary to provide a well-rounded education.

Evidence: Evidence-based research strategies or activities that strengthen and enrich the academic program by: extending the school day; embedding reading and/or mathematics curricula into other instructional areas; or other strategies as appropriate. Include a description of how the reform strategies will be evaluated for effectiveness

Narrative:

Costner is developing a learning environment where students take ownership of their learning. This is achieved through the relaunching of the Leader in Me Program. Academic goals are created at the school, classroom, and student level. Goals are aligned with state level academic standards and are used to increase rigor within the classroom. Teachers conduct conferences, which are led by each student's personalized data notebook to create individualized instructional models for students.

The master schedule is created to ensure Leader in Me time along with flex time ensuring students are not pulled out of core academic instruction. The content teacher will work with grade level teachers to develop rigorous educational opportunities, and to analyze assessment data to identify areas that need additional growth. The literacy teacher will focus primarily on supporting K-3 teachers with reading strategies and pulling small groups for remediation.
