

WARNING: This list is old, and several findings in it are false. I have made a new, better list that I think you should check out instead:

Welcome to the V.I.S.T! This is a list of the sources of instrument samples that have been used in video game soundtracks. Request access if you want to edit the list, and you can also send me a PM with your email address on Discord to get permission if you join the VGM & Other Instrument Sources server.

Rules: Do not add multiple instruments in one row. Only write the first console that the game was released on, and if the game was released on two consoles at the same time, write the oldest console that the game was released on. Do not write “All songs with (for example) a banjo”, write the specific songs that the sample was used in if you know which songs it was used in, and write “N/A” if you don’t know. Add instruments, not SFX.

Editors: G-Boy/NintendoGurkan, Hexagon12/Benas Dorochinas, punk7890/punk7890-2, alexnaveira/Alex Naveira/bauerklos music/Bauerklos

Check out this spreadsheet if you want to find out the sources of more Pokémon instruments, and there’s also this lovely thread that many people (including myself) have contributed to!
