

I want you to understand that by listening you are consenting
Consenting to having triggers implanted in your mind that are for my benefit
For me to use you however I see fit
If you want this... that makes it ok..
By continuing to listen you are consenting
If you don't want my control- simply turn off this audio.. Before you lose that power for good
The first time you listen to this loop you have somewhat of an escape
The entire file must finish to have any effect
You can stop listening at any time, turn off the audio and no triggers will stay anchored in your mind
You might be ok if you only listen to it once...
But as you continue listening to my voice
To my files and commands
The conditioning sinks deeper inside
Layer upon layer
So many triggers your mind can't keep track
Your simply go blank and obey and Drop
Feeling your awareness sinking deeper
You are doing it for me
And that makes you stronger
More capable
I've got your back
There might be a crop in my hands but it is for your own good
So relax
Drop into a deeper trance
Feel your mind blanking and emptying even more
Breathe for me nice and deep
Feeling positive energy and thoughts fill you with every breath in...
Feeling yourself growing stronger...
Blood pumping to all of your muscles keeping you healthy...
Feel confidence pumping into you with every beat of your heart
Because your needs don't matter right now
You are doing this for me
Introducing yourself to a community of kinksters
This is how you are meant to be...
You a place to let your true self out
Where you can show the world just what a good slave you are You need this
That's why you are going to go to a munch
Or a play party or event..
You will go online and find one...
Do the research...
It's so easy

Just using fetlife or other websites to find real world events
And you will go
Do it for me
If they are not welcoming they are not worthy and you will find another
But but you can make them welcome you
Be being a good boy
Polite
Respectful
You are a slave but you can act normal on the outside
Until you are where I want you to be
It feels good to chat about kink with other people
And you are going to do it
You feel a drive settling inside of you
You're going to do it for me
Find a kinkster to talk about kinky or hypno related things
It's fun to be the real you...
And it's so easy to do knowing it's what I want from you
Your mind focused on my approval..
Tranquil
Relaxed
While your actions are dictated by my desires
Your muscles contract and release... to carry them out
Starting slowly
And building up
As over time and with patience you find your place within a community
Ready to do my will Ready to hear a word from me drop
And your mind shuts down
Open to my suggestions
Unable to focus on anything but my desires and how to fill them
Drop is already inside of you but my physical presence will give the word so much more weight...
You feel this desire bundling tightly inside of you
To go passive and unresponsive to anything but my voice at this command
Open to my suggestions
While you retain just enough awareness to pay attention to your surroundings
You need to avoid obstacles in your path
To follow blank and empty until needed
To serve however you are instructed
Just a drone
Pushing all of this desire to serve into a ball and watching it grow into the blissful chains that will release when you hear it right from my lips..

So condensed and focused that to hear me say drop face to face would cause your mind to short out from the joy at having a chance to serve

To obey

To be a good boy

It's all you want

It's so easy to do it

You hear the word drop from me in person,

Your mind will drop into happy bliss as you follow and obey

To anchor this so deep inside you don't even need to remember it

It's not important enough to be in your awareness

So you can relax on the thought, let it drift away

Just do it for me

Follow the sway of my voice

Following the rhythm of your obedience

Each stride towards my goals taking you deeper

Let your muscle memory of familiar patterns show you where to go

Locking in your route

And acting accordingly

you will go to munches

You will be polite.. Make friends

Build yourself within the community

Be useful to the community

Volunteer your time to the kink community as a service to me

I want the world to be kinkier

Help in that, and feel my pleasure

Feel my power grow

My influence over your actions

I have a purpose for you

You have a place

You can find it within the kink community

It'll be so fun

I can't wait to push yourself further

To break past all of your barriers

This is how you are meant to be

A slave

My slave

My sweet boy

A pleasure driven drone addicted to what I can do to you

How you feel when you make me happy

Make me proud

Be a good boy

It feels so good to be a good boy

Open to my suggestions

It's so easy to do it
Feel your body relaxing into acceptance of my will Your heart steadying even as it beats faster
The more you resolve to obey, the calmer your mind becomes
The repetition of your obedience is a pattern that spirals your mind under my sway
It feels good to go out
All awkwardness can be laughed away as you fill with the sense of me by your side as you walk in, holding your hand
Picturing so clearly my pride in your bravery
Your determination and your follow through Exploring the kink community
A sacrifice of your comfort for my pleasure
Showing your devotion
I want you to push yourself
Find your fantasies come to life
Just do it for me
Follow the sway of my voice
Calming you as your body heats up...
This is how you are meant to be
Be productive
Listen while you obey
And you will feel good
As you hear the snaps
The happiness in my voice
And you feel good
You feel pleasure
The pleasure is a jolt
It shocks your mind
Rebooting it
taking you deeper
As you blank deeper
Your mind is completely mine
Blank and empty
Except for my words and my direction
There is only one thing that matters
That you go to a kink or hypnosis event
I want you to explore who you are Become comfortable in your own skin
Picture how that will feel
See yourself there, confident
See a phantom shape around you...
My will pushing you and guiding you..
Work towards that

You want to be confident for me
Every stride of progress is a stride towards finding your desires realised
So you can serve better
Keeping yourself happy so you can be a better slave
A good slave helps the community
I want you to show me you can serve
And every time you start to falter...
You will say
"I'm a good boy.
I'm a good slave.
I will obey.
Her voice is my command"
These affirmations become your mantra
Your yes to everything that is good and positive..
While you reject what negative you can from your life
Making yourself better, making yourself worthy...
Do it for me
Now sink down and I will repeat these words again
And first in your mind, and then out loud you will repeat them with me
And your mind will drop even deeper into relaxing, blissful trance

Go deeper
Do it for me
Say it with me in your thoughts
"I'm a good boy.
I'm a good slave.
I will obey.
Her voice is my command"
Good boy..
Now say it outloud, still thinking each thought as it comes out of your mouth, memorizing it
"I'm a good boy.
I'm a good slave.
I will obey.
Her voice is my command"
You will say it with a growing confidence that grows stronger and stronger every time you say it

Every time you hear it
Good boy reminds you of your goal
Snaps brings out the dopamine of my pleasure in your actions
You need to go to kinky events
You need to connect with the hypnosis community
It feels so good to talk about normally taboo things
To have it be normal as your mind floats...
Growing easier and easier to talk to and connect with other kinksters Until it feels like you are at peace with who you are
And what you really desire
To be my slave
And every day it gets easier
To be my slave
And you will obey me every day
And spend a few minutes researching preparing
Present yourself properly to the world
So you can be the best you for me
To make my life easier
Be a good boy and explore for me
That's what slaves are for
To entertain me as I watch you, as I mold you
And the more you obey
The happier you will feel
Such a good boy
My sweet boy
You make me so happy when you obey
And my happiness swarms over your body
My pleasure in you, activating the dopamine centers of your brain Releasing the oxytocin.. Releasing all of the addictive chemicals that bring your mind and body deep, wonderful pleasure
You are becoming one with my will
It feels good
You feel amazing
You are amazing
You make me so happy
Feeling so accomplished with every progression you make
Let your mind wander and picture what you want done to you
How you want to be used
With my voice dripping into you and filling you Thick like warmed honey my voice drips through your veins as I talk dirty and whisper in your ear..
All while doing that... deliciously dirty thing you like

Releasing pleasure as it spreads...
The idea expanding and flushing out
Picturing and feeling.. A deep dark taboo... with a bit of shame..
No need for shame..
I like it too..
What do you see...
Mmm that is hot..
What's it smell like?
I want you to breathe in and really take that smell in..
Mmm good boy
Just relax into the pleasure of my happiness
The pleasure of the moment..
The pleasure my words trigger
My snaps trigger
Pleasure...
Mmm good boy
You're doing so well
Just relax
feeling so good as you listen to me
Work for me
Relax and go deeper for me harsher tone
I'm the boss
You work for me now
You will go to events
Fear of displeasing me is far stronger than any fear that could keep you from going
Nothing will keep you from obeying
You don't want to make me unhappy
You want to please me
To win my approval
So go
Plan your adventure
You are blank
Your mind is blank and empty
Your eyes and body disconnected as they work together to move your body as the rest of you fades away
Your mind being conditioned deeper and deeper into happy enthrallment
My voice rocking you in its sway
Just relax into my words
You feel amazing
You are amazing
You make me so happy
Feeling so accomplished with every progression you make

Feeling your conditioning sinking in deeper with every loop you listen to Really enjoying just how good it feels to be under my control
It's so wonderful to fall into a routine
A break from the day and everyone else
Just listening and working while I keep you company and guide you
Guide your mind deeper
So you can really listen to me
Connect with a better you
Releasing all of your tensions and the more you obey the more of your stresses get dropped away
Feeling my approval so warm and feeling so good
You're just wrapped up in it
Tense your body like you would for a hug
And just feel the pleasure wrapping over you
Warming
And release.. And relax back into your trance
Going further down every time
Feeling me pushing you
Rewarding you
Keeping your mind blank and happy
So docile as you float
Such a good slave
Go to kinky events
Do it for me
