Research: Civil Rights Leader: Person Panel 1

This note catcher will help you start organizing thoughts and research for your pamphlet project. Take detailed notes, and add new sources to your 'Works Cited' page as you go.

- a. Relevant background information on their life
- b. What are their core beliefs and values?
- c. How did these beliefs develop or change?

Sources:

- a) Find information on their experience in childhood and as a young adult that helps paint a picture: what made this person who they are? Describe their journey to joining the Civil Rights Movement.

b) What are this person's core beliefs and values? Find quotations from the person that captures their beliefs. If you can't find quotes, use stories about them that you find online.

c) Did these beliefs and values change over time? If there is a period of 'transformation', explain what happened and why it led them towards the Civil Rights Movement. If this isn't clear, then why were they on a path towards the Civil Rights Movement from the beginning?
