✱ eight's t.o.s. ✱

these terms will be in effect if you are in possession of my artwork/work, whether it be customs, commissions or trades. these are just terms, and not legal law but more so as boundaries.

I won't hesitate to block people who break these boundaries.

general art/design/commission terms

- ★ to prevent scams, payment comes before I start.
- ★ my artwork belongs to me or the respective client, the commissioner or the person on the other side of a trade. you are not permitted to use my art without explicit permission from the owner or me.
- ★ don't repost my art. if you are the commissioner or the owner of the character, however, feel free to use my art as a banner or pfp – with credit :)
- ★ DO NOT trace, steal, repost, edit, write/draw over or use my artwork without my explicit permission/knowledge.
- ★ be polite when you're ordering a commission or asking for a trade. attitude will not be tolerated. I reserve the right to decline any commissions/trades for any reason.
- ★ I don't do edits or updates, it stresses me out and it's generally hard for me to edit my art after I've already finished lines.
- ★ for the time being and foreseeable future, I will be accepting DA points only unless otherwise stated.
- ★ do not set a deadline for me, I know what I'm doing and I don't need additional pressure.
- ★ I reserve the right to use any and all art produced by me for promotional purposes only (e.g. art examples etc.).
- ★ I also reserve the right to use/post any art that I have made unless under explicit request of the owner for reasons such as a private character or uncomfortable with a design being posted, etc.

- ★ I am a minor, so I will not tolerate my art being used to represent nsfw/fetish themes, as it makes me extremely uncomfortable to be associated with these topics.
- ★ my work is not to be shown or given in any way, shape or form to any of the users on my red/blacklist.
- ★ do not mint my art/use my artwork as an nft/sell/use it OR use it in the production of AI "art". disregarding this term can and will lead to a legal action being made.

failure to comply with these terms will result in a block and a blacklist. you will be prohibited from commissioning/trading with me.

users on these lists are prohibited from commissioning/trading with me or obtaining any designs or artwork in general from me. some reasons may be listed but otherwise I'm not too comfy with posting reasons here. please let me know if they're found using, stealing or otherwise interacting with my designs. do not provoke/harass the people on this list. they are not to be witchhunted, they are just here because of a bad experience or personal issues with these people.

if you support any of the below redlisted users, however, kindly do not interact with me. block me, ip block me, anything that stops us from seeing each other's profiles. you will be automatically greylisted.
