Name Legend:

Sour / Nathan = Sourbraix

Lila / Jay = Lilalychi

Soda / Chip = SodaChip

My name is Lila. I am a trans non-binary asian person. My intent is to share my experiences with someone I once called a friend. I put a trigger warning at the beginning of this document due to the content of the messages I received from Sourbraix aka Nathan.

Secondary document posted by Loluhani (another person impacted by sour's behavior) between Summer of 2022 - 2024:

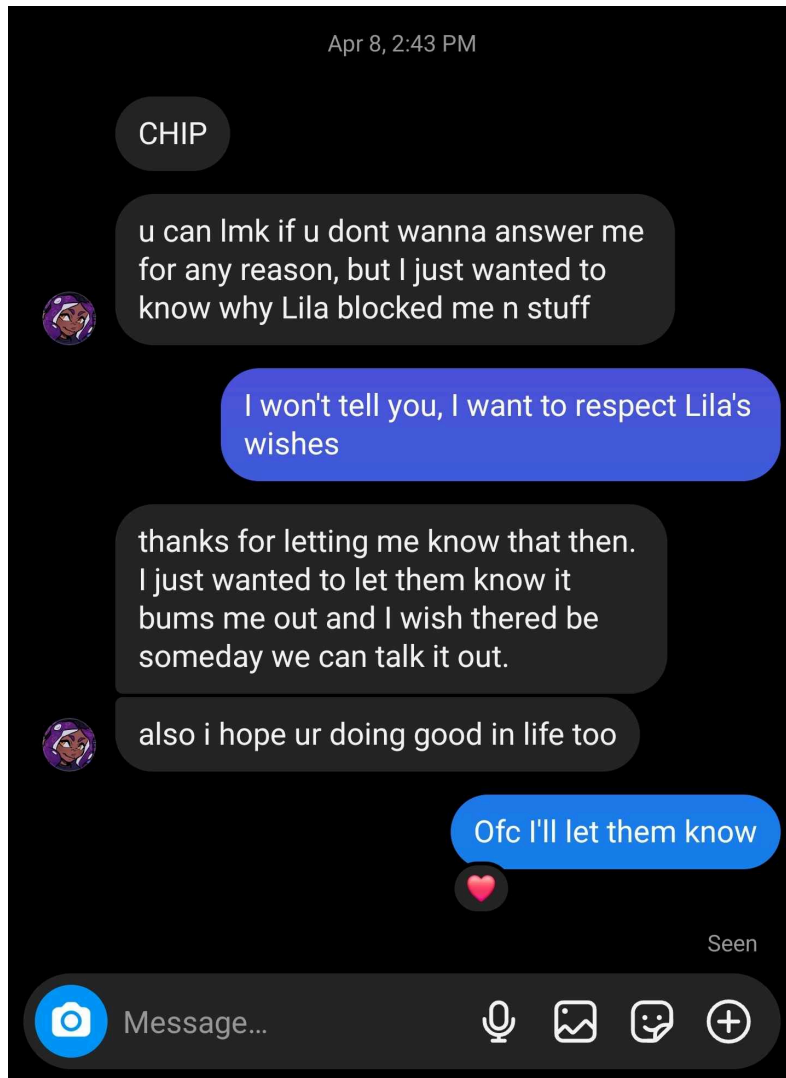

https://docs.google.com/document/d/1-Fko_tgnUP7y3stivezuS9ymTeryAQpSqnQVpdP9dVo/edit?usp=drivesdk

As a note, I did not intend to post this publicly from my own account. The reason I am doing so today is the fact that Sour has knowledge of my full name, the state I live in, and many photos of my face. I was a scared, terrified young teenager when these things happened, and feared blackmail. I only say my name now due to the fact that he will know exactly who I am regardless of if I make my identity known publicly.

These acts occurred between 2018-2022, many of which were in formerly public discord servers. Many things were not captured due to these servers being deleted, and myself not recording during our voice chats. My intent is to bring to light the experiences I witnessed as a warning to all members of the splatoon community that may interact with him.

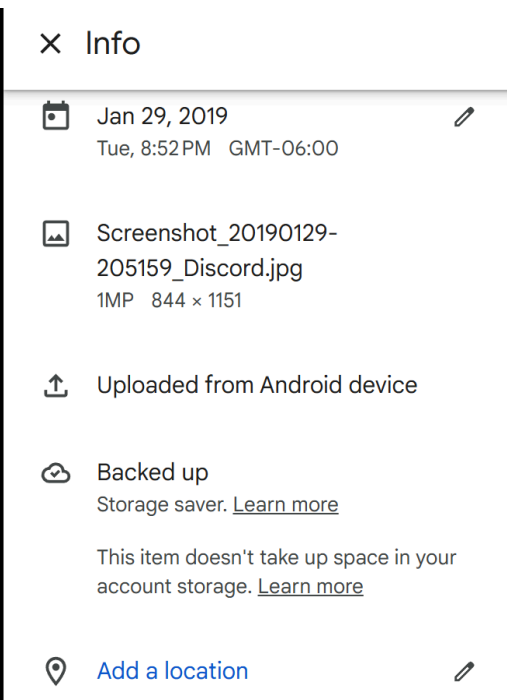

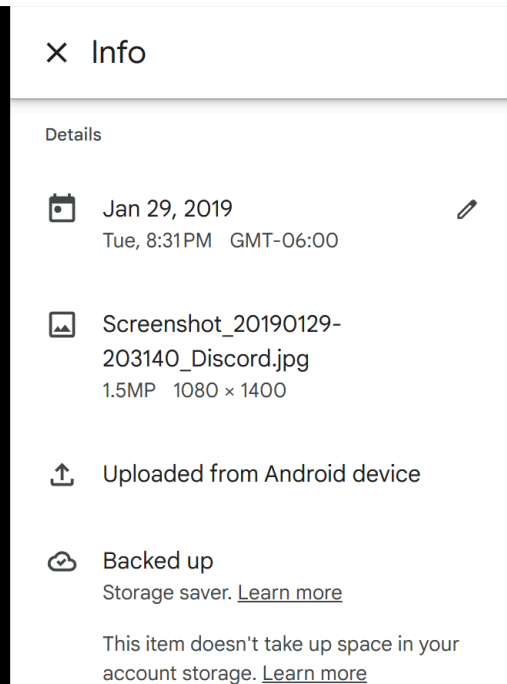

I suffered through his constant sexual pestering & terrible remarks until around 2022 when I eventually closed myself off mostly from the Splatoon community. I did not play the game as much as I wished to, as picking up anything splatoon related gave me panic attacks & physical discomfort. My biggest fear today is that he may use the images of myself, my location & full name against me should I speak up and not make my identity known. I have blocked him in January of 2024 as per the wishes of my partner, Soda. He did reach out to soda earlier this year inquiring why I blocked him, of which Soda did not disclose after asking me.

The saddest part of this is that I truly thought Nathan was my friend. I trusted him, and let him into my personal life. It was a very hard decision to speak up about this behavior, even after years of me begging him to stop in VC. I would rather share this information now, than allow him to continue. Here is the related screenshot from my partner Chip (now goes by Soda), mind you that Sour has never talked this respectfully towards me in any situation. No matter if I begged him or not. This screenshot is from Soda's personal IRL instagram account. He was able to see our faces on the regular with access to this account and my own personal IRL account.
April 8th 2024.

Sour and I met on my partner's server in 2018. My partner Soda went by "Chip" at the time. You will see myself, Sour and others refer to my partner by this name as context. I will provide the Google Photos' timestamp dates alongside these messages for reference.

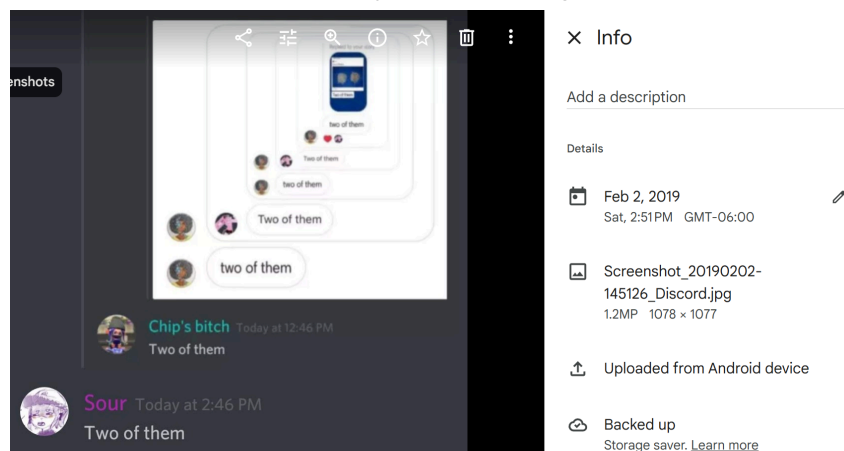

I had only taken screenshots of our interactions that many of us found "out of pocket" or "funny" at the time. And this is the earliest screenshot I have due to switching phones 3 times since then. (January 29th 2019)

// Please pardon the fact that Google Photos has an overlay to these images. // I will add other unrelated images chronologically with timestamps for receipts at the end of this document. //

Here is another screenshot where Sour and I were interacting between discord and instagram. At the time, I had gone by "Lilacuity" (Handle: Lila.cuity on instagram), although in 2020 I moved to a new account and in 2021 I changed my main handle to “Lilalychi”. This whole time, I have been known as “Lila” publicly. (February 2nd 2019)

Here is another image (continuation of the previous image) with a separate timestamp. It is quite grainy due to me screenshotting it off of my friend's story at the time, regardless his profile picture & name are still present.

// Screenshot by my friend Griffin // February 2nd 2019 (Sour's profile is depicted with an emote he regularly used.)

This was one of the first screenshots I have related to Sour's uncomfortable directness towards myself and my peers in a sexual manner. Griff (aka griffin) was my friend “Griffinsong” of which I had known since 2015. I would definitely say this behavior was making Griffin uncomfortable, especially as Sour was first introduced to our group as a person that went by “she/her”. Sour did not correct us until late 2019. My comfortability with these jokes at first were due to the fact I thought Sour was A) a woman B) joking and C) mocking people that spoke like this. (February 28th 2019)

Here is the timestamp with the image included, I wanted to include the screenshot first for readability.

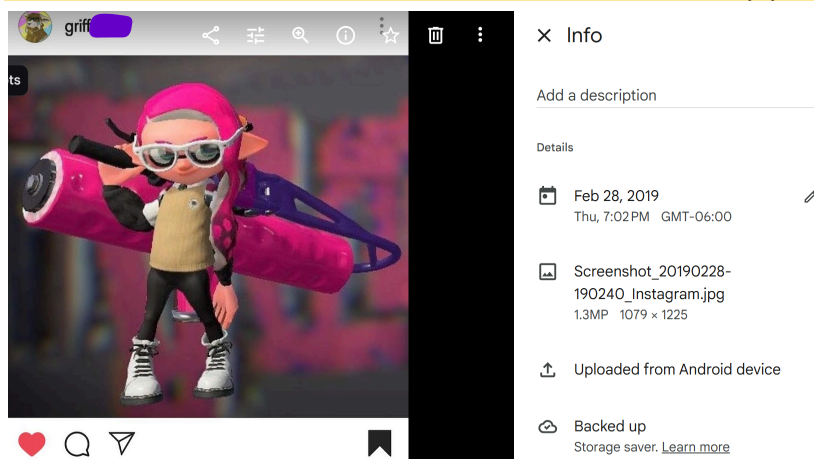

// May it be disclosed I thought he was a girl at the time, and this was ACTUALLY sarcasm. It was not.// This screenshot presents that his behavior was continuous, and began early on in our Friendship. I was under the impression from late 2018 until August of 2019 that he was a feminine person, and did not intend me any harm.

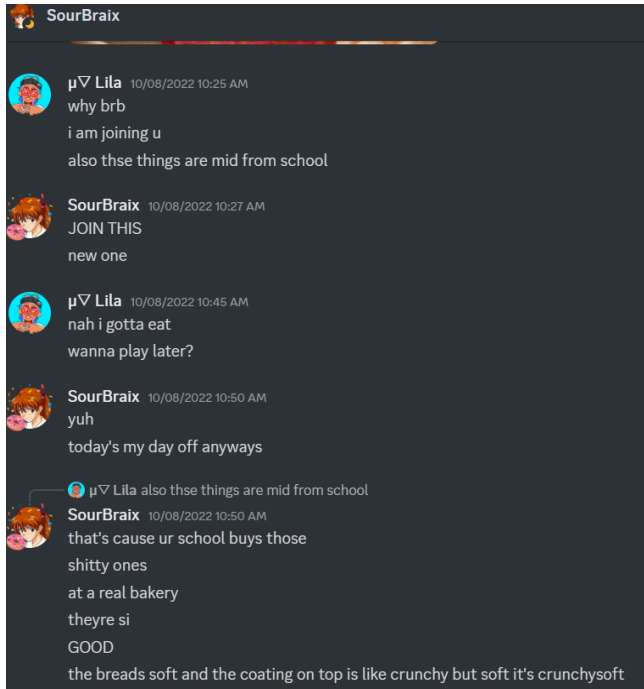

I would joke around about marriage a lot (the era was 2019, I was raised a christian AFAB, & was taught marriage was my only purpose in life. I made many jokes to help me cope), and shipping was a constant gag of many servers at the time. Sour depicted here once again (February 28th 2019)

Here is a screenshot of Griffin's inkling, we all played splatoon 2 turf war battles together. At the time, Sour was not very well polished with Squiffer and was learning how to play it. He grinded Turf wars for hours at a time, of which we would drop in and call during these. This is where many of the sexual remarks towards my body happened (and later on gender as I came out as first asexual, then non-binary.) Griffin's Inkling on her instagram. I had screenshotted so I could draw her later :((February 28th 2019)

I continued to play turf war with Sour frequently, even well into early launch Splatoon 3. (October 8th 2022)

Related conversation between griffin and myself regarding sour's gender & pronouns mid August 2019. I have blocked Griffin's full username because she deserves privacy even with me having to use our messages as receipts. (August 13th 2019)

"He asked me out too and I was just struggling so hard to not tell him to hecc off he doesn't know how to take a hint- He;s fine just oh my god"

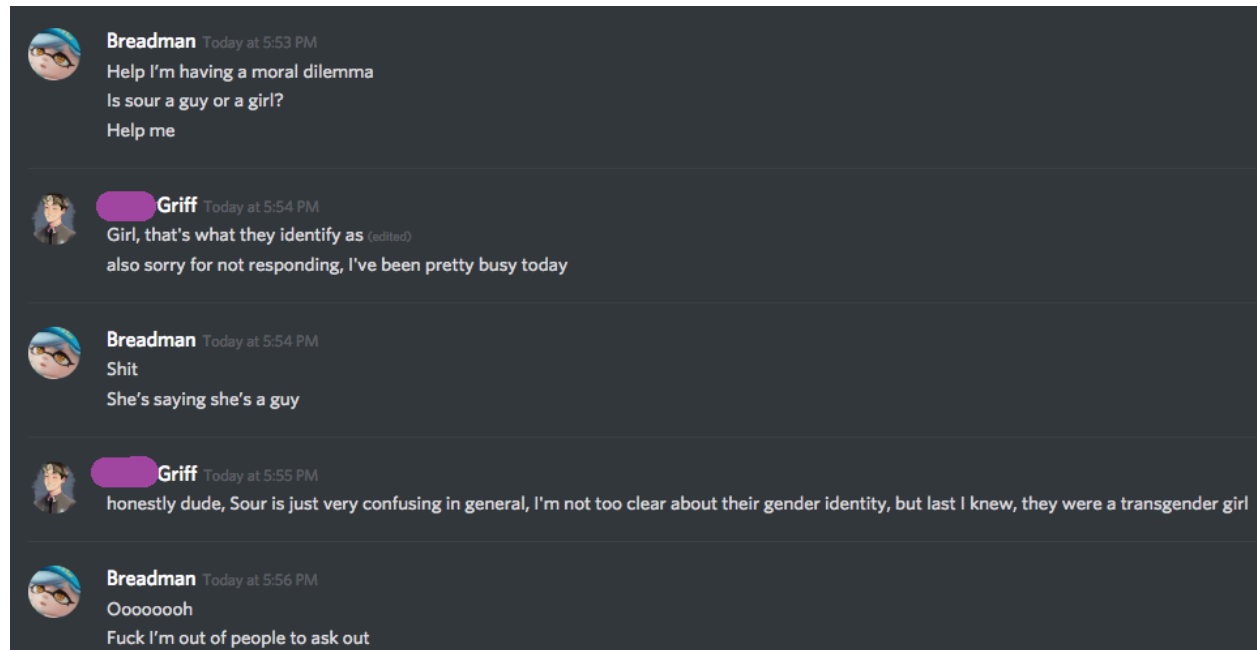

// Griffin is referring to breadman in the above screenshot. This person frequented Chip's server (of which I was a mod) and considered himself to be good friends with Sour. Sour eventually turned on him despite making the exact same jokes he did. This furthered the narrative that Sour wasn't simply making jokes, and unfortunately we never decided to push further to remove him from the server. I was under the guise he was a very good friend, and continued to defend and support him due to this.

Another related screenshot to Sour's Gender Identity & Pronouns. We were doing our best to support him no matter what he presented as & asked him what pronouns he preferred. He made it clear from the beginning that he had a penis by making very public jokes about it from the start. Griffin refers to those jokes here in her statement. (August 13th 2019)

(The last portion is referring to Breadman, Sour's friend.)

Breadman asking Griffin about Sour's gender after Griffin had to politely turn Breadman's date request down. (August 13th 2019)

Someone asked Sour about his pronouns & gender identity. He was clear here with them, never outside of DMS tho (May 6th 2021) // Extra Note: Daft404 is an instagram user that was sexually harassing me in my partner's comment section (of which I was modding) and then in DMs. Sour continued DMing him directly because he found it funny.

(<https://www.instagram.com/reel/COeRTheJztX/?igsh=MXZqYWdwd2t1bHFxcw==>)

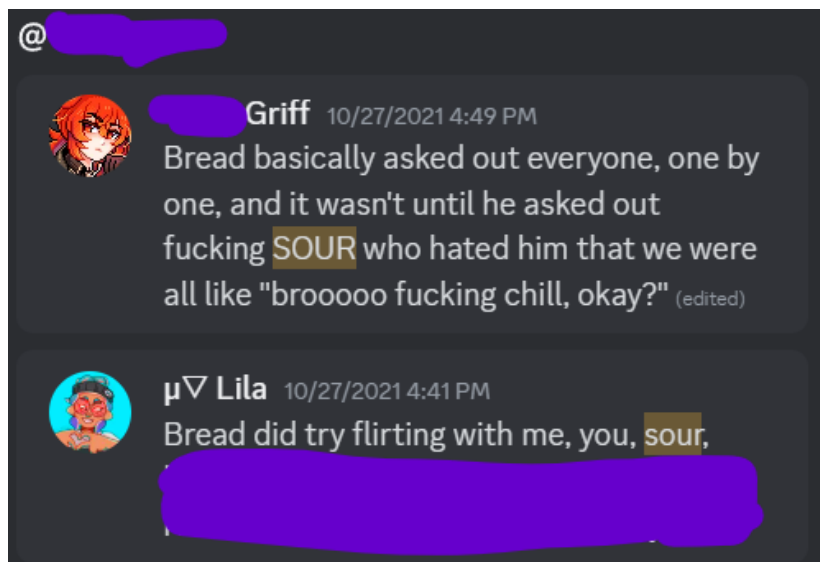

Timestamp showing the date of griffin's message/screenshot
(August 13th 2019) // Griffin was expressing distaste about Sour's friend.

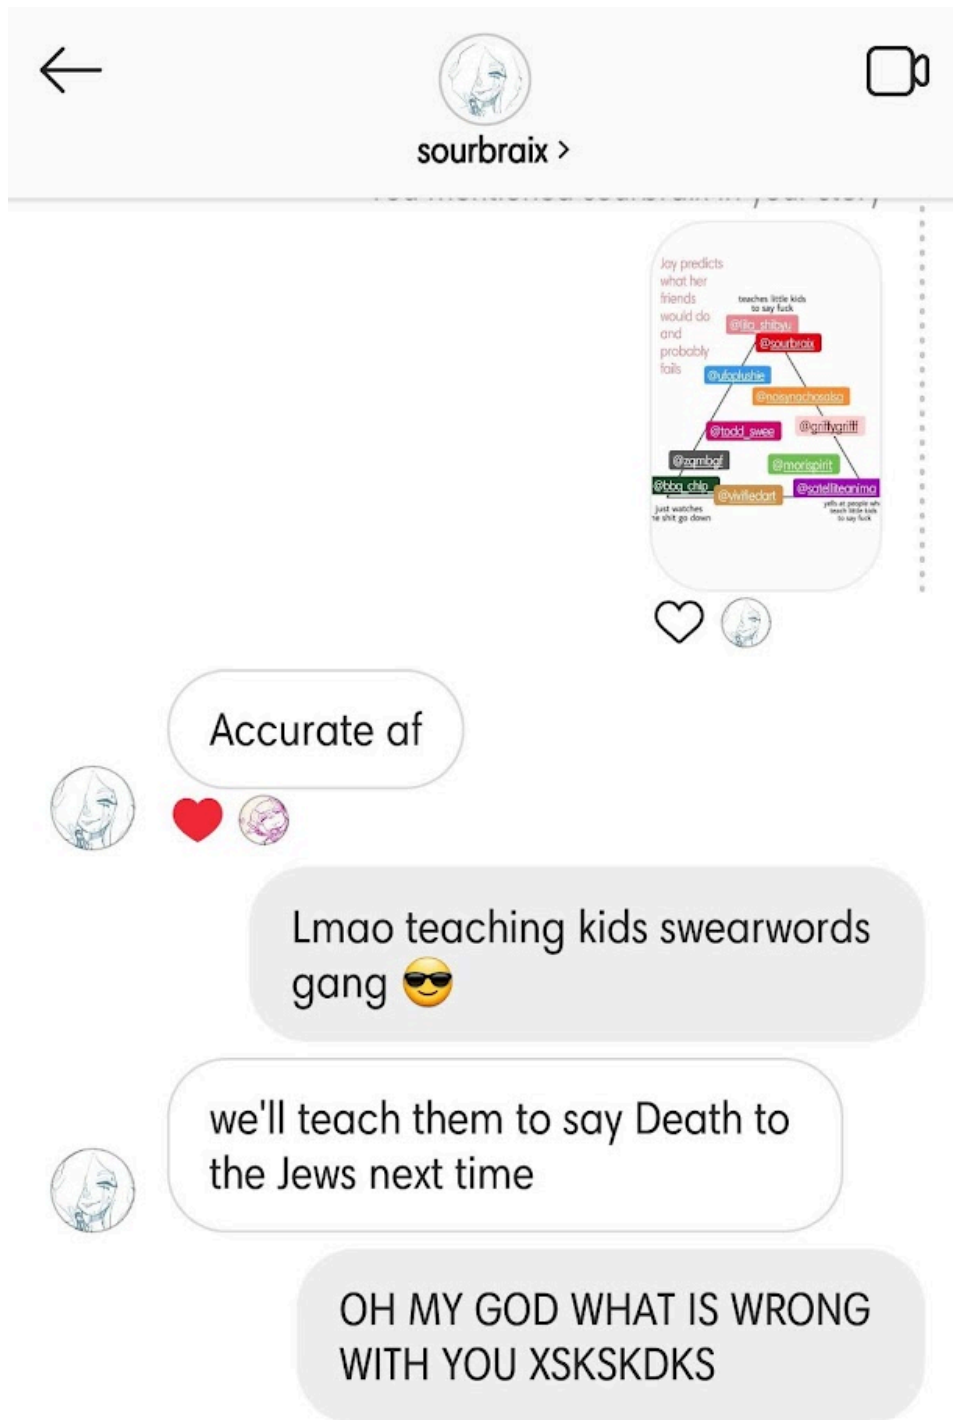

Later on Griffin and I recalled this behavior with less confusion as we both thought Sour was our friend. This is where Breadman was eventually cast out of the friend group, with Sour turning on his oldest friend to remain in good standing. (October 27th 2021)

Griffin goes on to explain here that Sour hated Breadman, which was unknown to the rest of us until after the fact. I doubt Breadman ever knew.

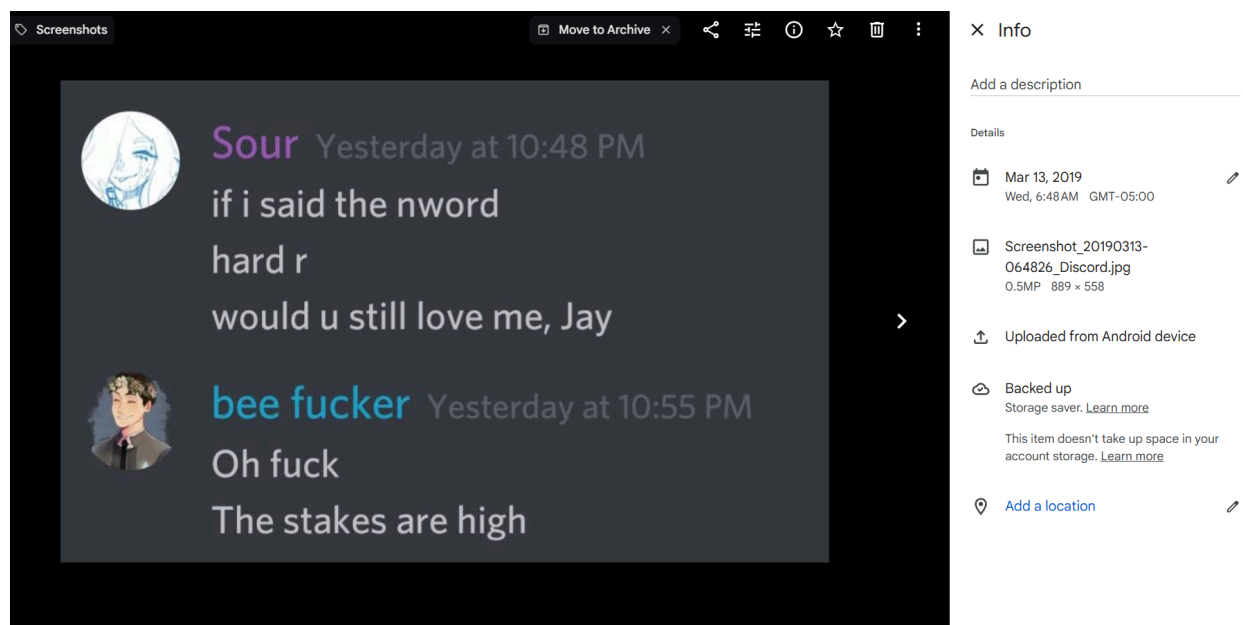

// TRIGGER WARNING: ANTISEMITISM & VIOLENCE // This screenshot is between Sourbraix's instagram & my private at the time (Lila_Shibyu) (March 5th 2019)

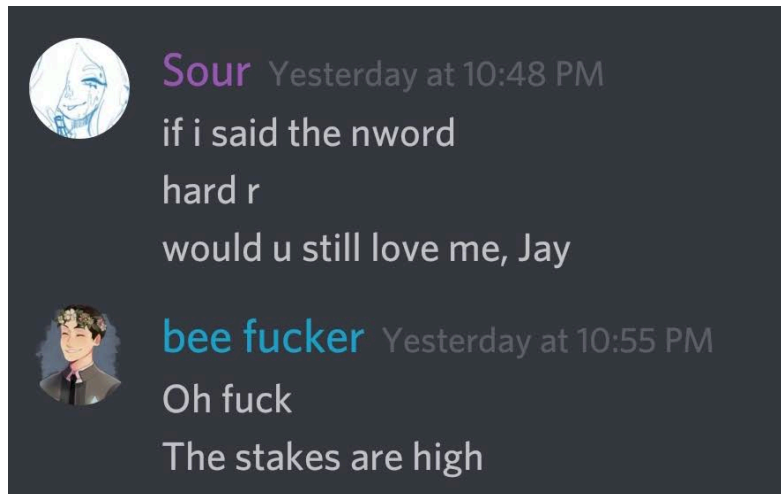

For context, this meme was a “place yourself on a scale from”: teaches little kids to say F*ck, Watches it all go down & yells at the swearing people.

// TRIGGER WARNING: RACISM & N-WORD MENTION //

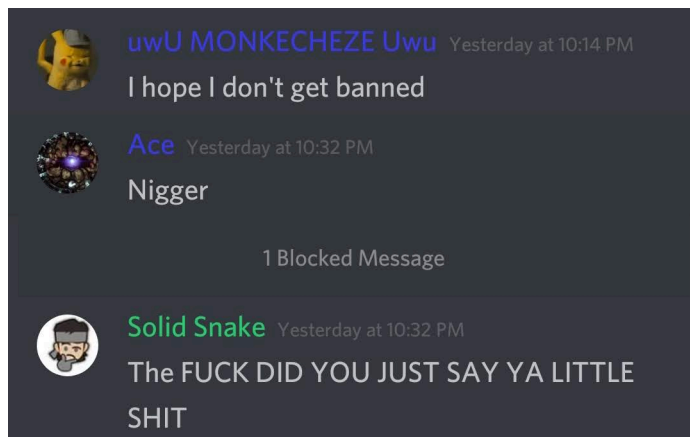

March 13th 2019

Depicted here is Sour, and “Bee Fucker” is Griffin. Griffin knew I really cared about sour and the rest of my friend group at the time, and attempted to play off a lot of the jokes to keep me comfortable. She tried talking with me in calls often asking me how comfortable I was, although I truly thought Sour was my friend so I also played off how much this bothered me.

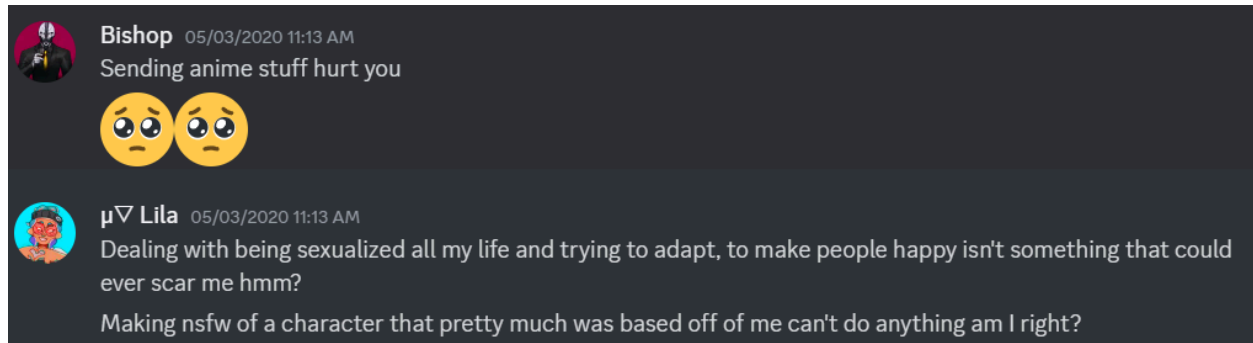

Sour did say the N word in VC. Ace also said this along with him, in a way to mock me for “being a strict discord mod”. I berated both of them for this on a daily basis, but to Sour & Ace, it was a joke. Ace (who is a white man from Texas) actually said this in the server right before I banned him. Sour later on referred to this in the above screenshot.

January 25th 2019

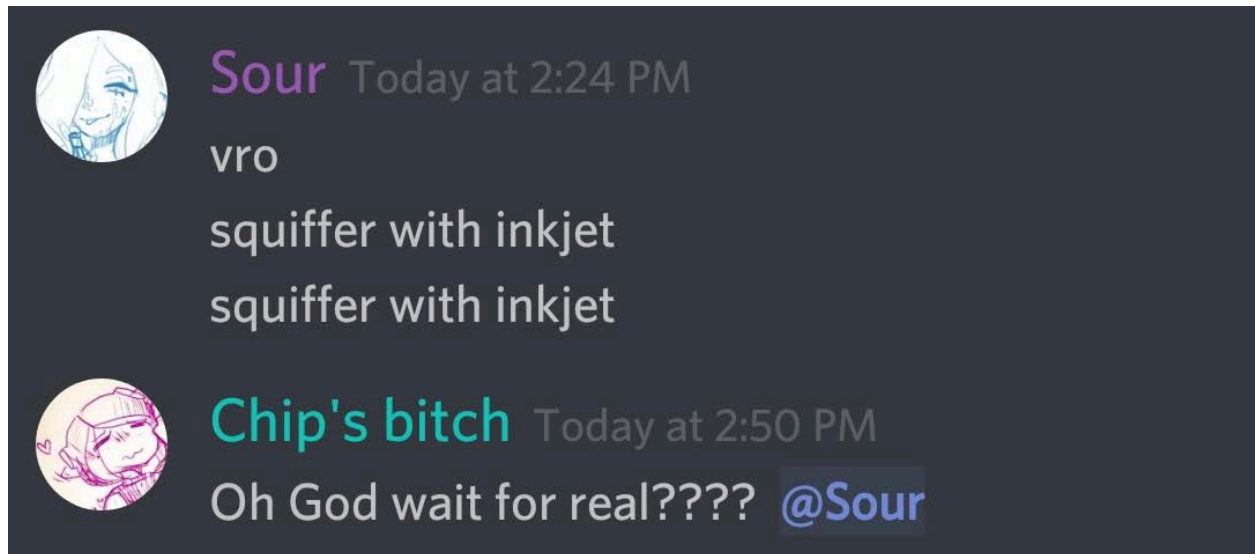

As another note, Ace and Sour got along quite well in the discord server until he was banned. Here was my last conversation with Ace after I eventually spoke up. Ace made many sexual jokes towards me, of which Sour laughed at in VC & played along with. (May 3rd 2020)

Later on March 13th 2019 (orange depicted is Soda aka Chip). Sour is not shy with the jokes (penis and sexual towards me), and everyone runs along with it cause it was 2019 and “haha funny two girls that are kissing hehe this COULDN’T be malicious.” hence the gay joke. I was out as asexual at the time, which is why this didn’t raise a red flag.

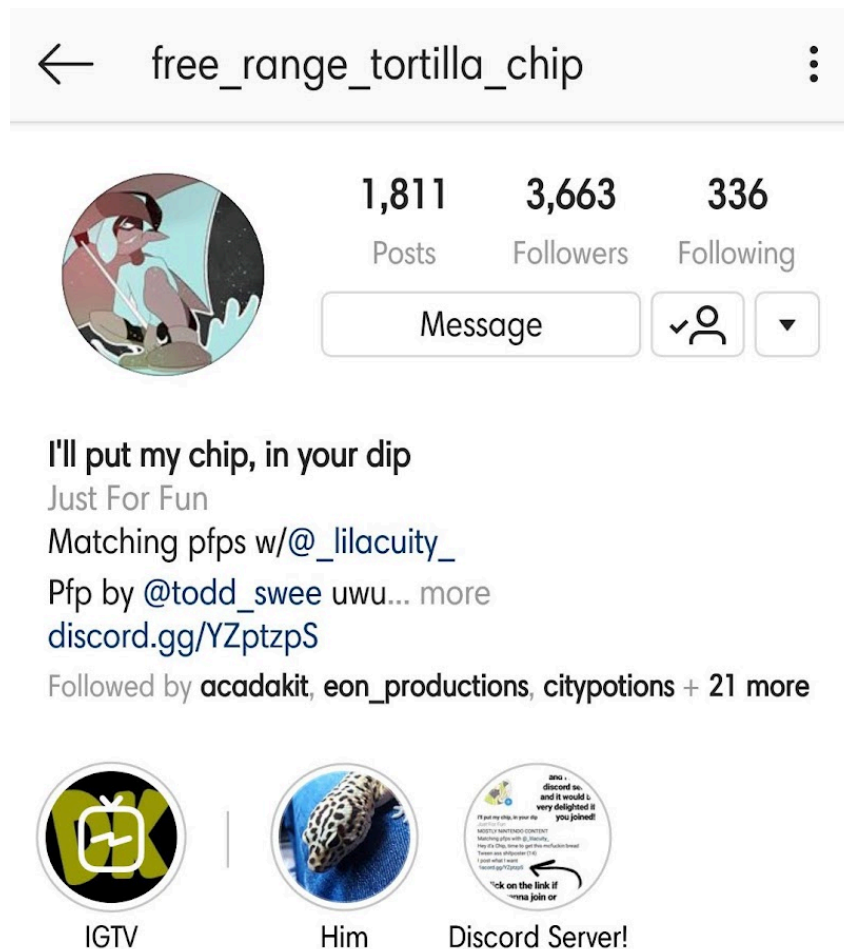

Timeline wise in case you wanted to know, all of this happened right before Sheldon's kits were dropped. Announced on March 30th 2019 Sheldon's Picks - Inklopedia, the Splatoon wiki. Sour and I were really excited about fresh squiffer since we played turf war together often and I enjoyed his edits on instagram at the time.

Google Photos screenshot for reference.

I have included a screenshot of Soda's old instagram page at the time. The discord link will no longer work, but you can see the discord server highlight. (March 31st 2019). This is where Sour and I first met. I joined the discord server around the same time he did. Sour had met Soda before I did & became acquaintances with him. When we first met, he knew me as Soda's Girlfriend at the time (pre-transition, please refer to me as They/Them). Sour's comments were unwelcome, so I protested in VC daily.

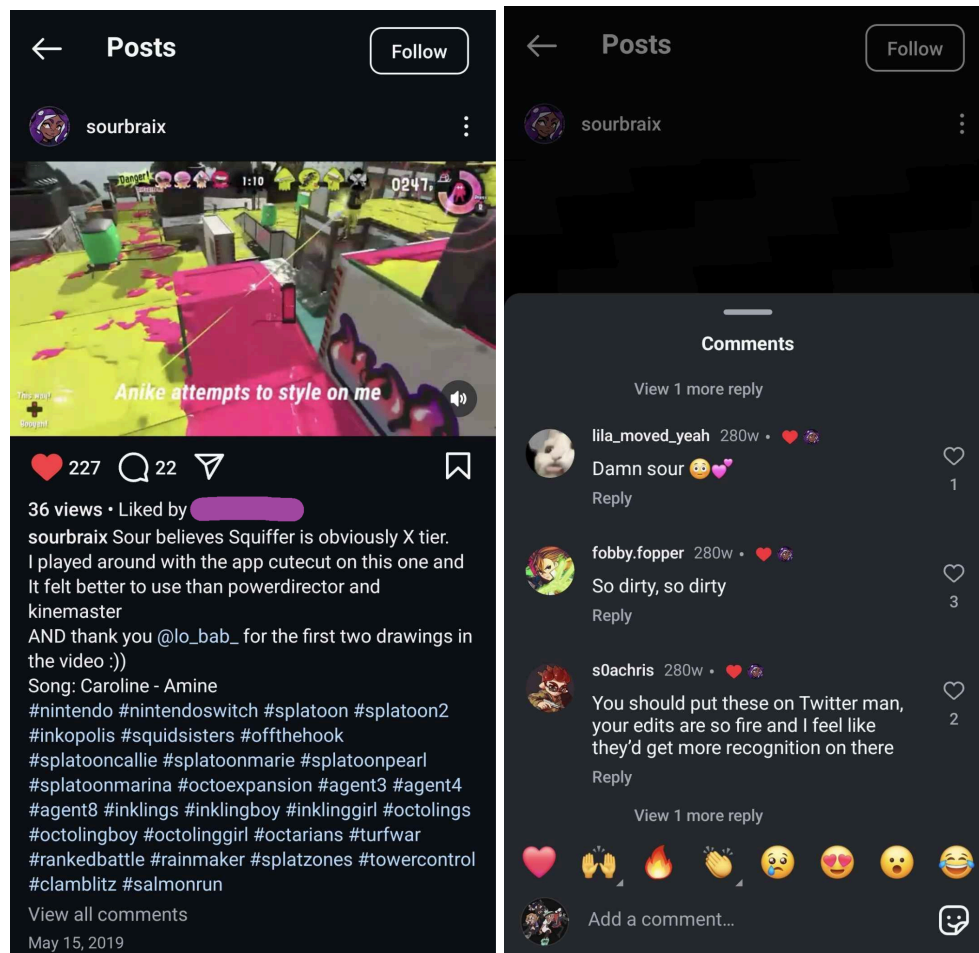

You can find my comments on his videos as well as Soda's old personal account which is depicted as liked here. I don't want to include this username as my partner is still active there. This is where Sour most recently messaged my partner Soda (aka chip). Lila_moved_yeah was my old personal account that Sour was following. He got to see images of me and soda IRL very frequently.

I had photos near where I lived too.

I have archived the account now, but there were nearly 900 posts from around 2017-2020 when I moved accounts.

(Edit depicted is from May 15th 2019, of which Loluhani (another person impacted by Sour) is tagged in))

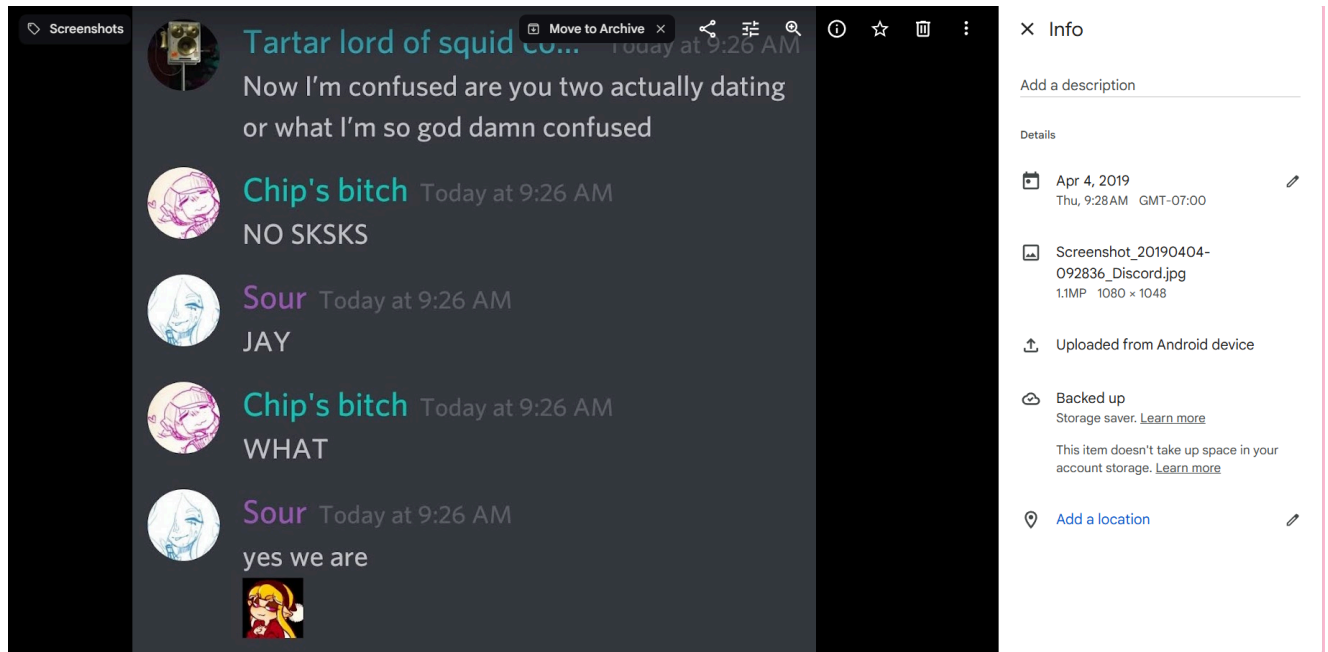

We all met through instagram, frequently liked each other's posts and mentioned each other in stories. I unfortunately no longer have access to these accounts, and Meta is not helping me get back in. By the time I get back in, I presume most of the things Sour has said he will have deleted. Sourbraix (same handle), and Lila.cuity (which still is my art youtube name in case you want a reference.) Lilacuity - YouTube

From here on out, this is where the “dating” and sexual jokes became very intense.

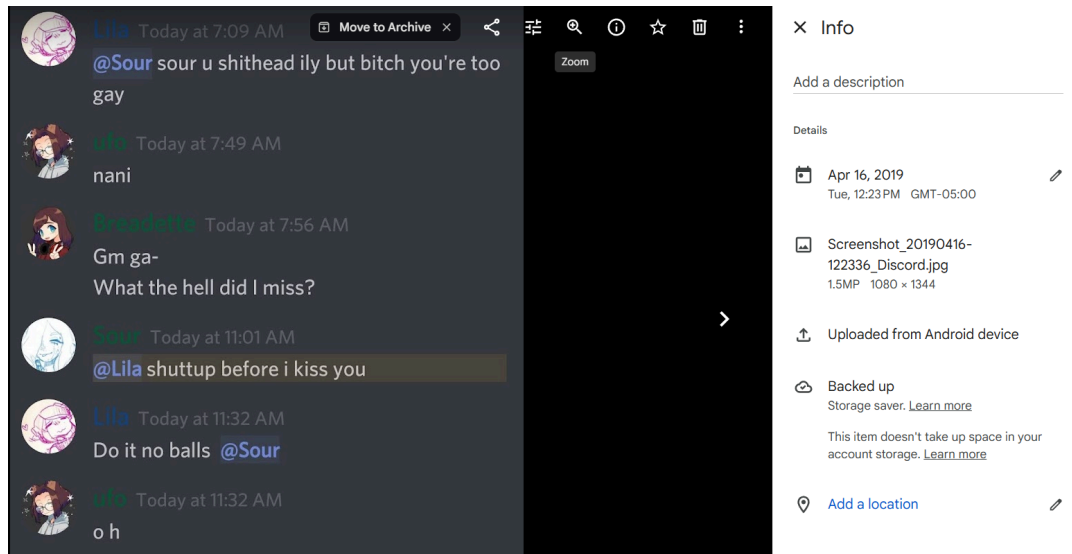

Tartar Lord of Squid Company is “Breadman”. Chip’s Bitch is myself (my IRL name is Jay. I really did not want to put this here.), Sour is Sour. As a secondary note, please review the second page of screenshots in this document where the same exact inkling emote is used. This happened in Chip’s free_range_tortilla_chip meme page server. (April 4th 2019)

It was literally every week at the minimum for weird messages. I was playing along because I genuinely thought Sour was Feminine & didn't mean any of this in a predatory uncomfortable way. I was a young, very foolish teenager that was in an unstable home life where sexual harassment happened to me from many people IRL. I thought this was normal friendly banter. (April 16th 2019)

And here is Breadman's joke immediately after. We all truly wanted to respect Sour's gender identity, and did not mean to misgender him. He was referred to as a girly by his other friends, and did not list his pronouns in his bio on discord or instagram. (April 16th 2019)

Most of us went along with the idea that Sour was Transgender (MTF) as he made many jokes and even referred to himself as She/Her to go along with the masquerade. I was going by She/They at this point and thought “What’s the harm of two girls being a little gay and silly”. I thought we were JOKING. I truly thought Sour was just very comfortable with herself & wanted to be open about her transgender experience & body image.

This is furthered by the jokes below. I thought Sour was MTF. If I knew he was cishet, I would have immediately felt disgusted and blocked him on the spot (as previously shown where I finally blocked Ace). As an AFAB transgender queer person, this situation still hurts me to this very day.

//TRIGGER WARNING: TRANSGENDER SLUR//

Screenshot: (April 16th 2019)

Here is my old discord profile, I had to change it to “Lilac#2223” right before discord usernames changed due to Ace stalking me. You can also see my old twitch account attached there with my old username. For comparison & consistency purposes, here is the time lapse.

Original profile is from April 30th 2019, while the most recent screenshot is from today September 27th 2024.

Both of the profile pictures were drawn by me, the left one was a shared icon with my partner Chip (aka Soda, we are still sharing a profile picture on my twitter), and it was done on paper with a pencil. I had changed the color of the original sketch to pink on my private instagram profile (Lila_Shibyu) as I typically did with sketches around that time of my art journey. The right one is my most recent artwork that is available on my Sendou.Ink & major social media profiles.

Lilalychi | sendou.ink

Lila lives on 🦋☁️ now!! \(@LilaLychi\) / X

I have also included a screenshot of my discord friend list at the time, with the very bottom person being Griffin. I have circled the server icon that we shared. This was the Free_Range_Tortilla_Chip server icon.

(April 30th 2019)

Sour would make tons of jokes about myself creating NSFW content & media when we were both minors. There were requests to draw our Octoling OCs in intercourse in VCs a lot. He was aware of the fact that Ace & a few other people had gotten NSFW commissions of my characters/characters made to represent me, and would have lots of fun poking at me about it. I was publicly known to be sex repulsed & Asexual.
(June 18th 2019)

Sour was known to post the most gruesome and explicit NSFW in a separate server where I was not welcome due to the nature of the posts. I complained enough about him posting NSFW in #General that this was their collective solution. Chip was asked to make the server, and I intended to remain out as this server existed to protect me. Chip did his best to find a solution to keep everyone happy.

This did not stop Sour from sending & deleting NSFW immediately after I called him out in the main server. I joined once for sillies, and was immediately kicked at the time by Chip, to keep me from experiencing what Sour was sending. My other biggest complaint at the time was that we were all minors and there were folks not consenting to seeing NSFW everywhere. Breadman, Chip, Sour and a few others were all present.

(June 27th 2019)

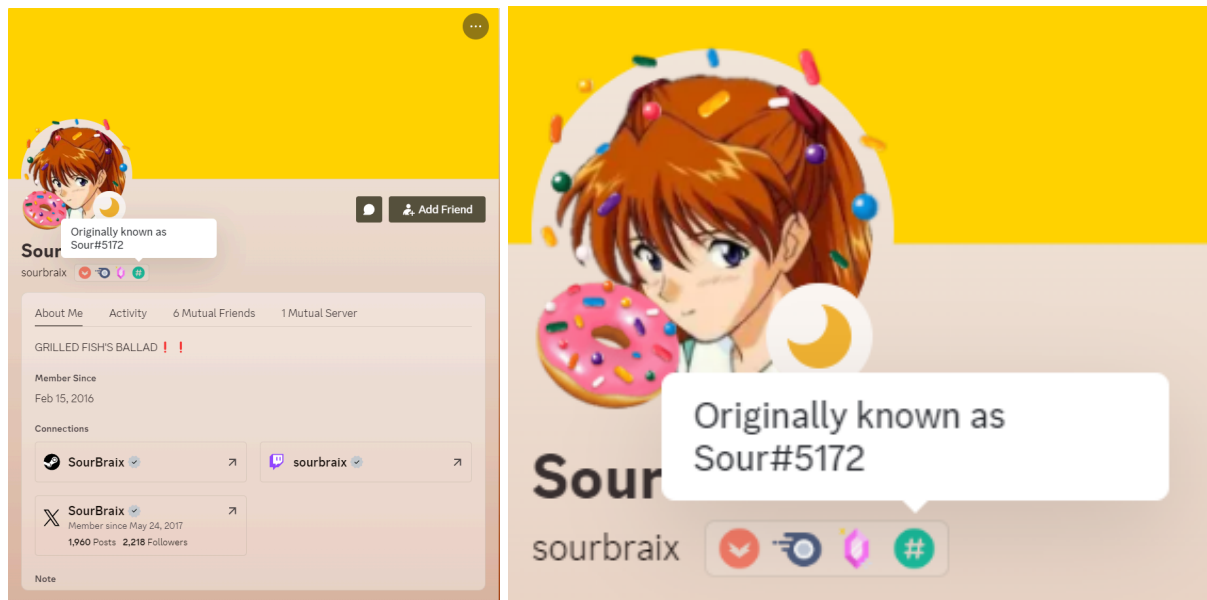

This joke directly ties in to his habits of spamming NSFW when I was either offline or in VC to get my instant reaction. Chip & I stepped away from discord due to the fears of DDOSing that happened in 2019.

Screenshot with time stamp:

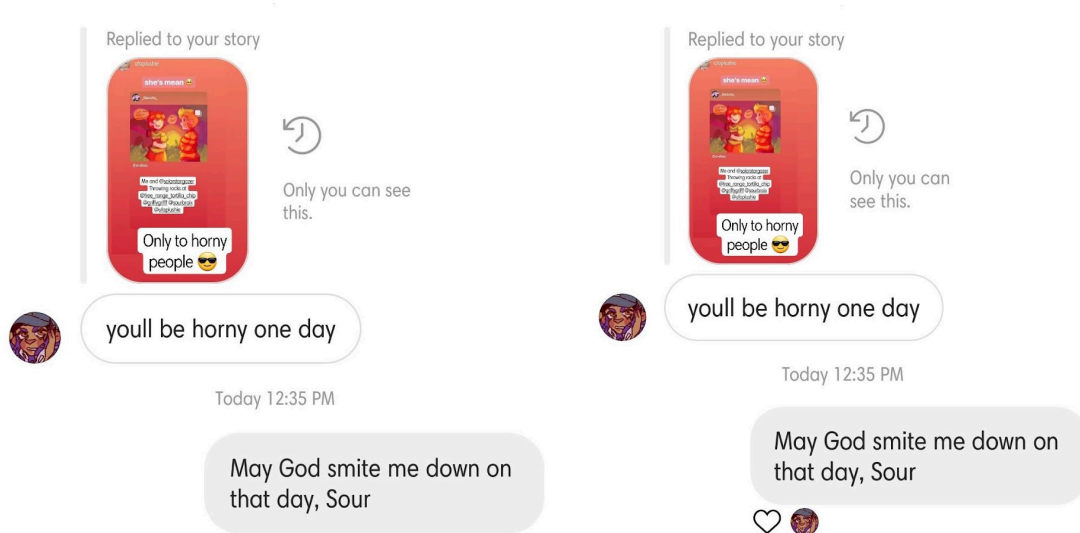

Sour's discord tag at the time. It is a digit off, I am presuming due to him switching back and forth from sourbraix to sour and losing his original discord username tag similar to how I did. Also please note the gender neutral reference here made by another member. Literally everyone was guessing atp. Please see (February 27th 2021) for confirmation of the same tag as seen below. (June 27th 2019)

(Screenshots from today: September 27th 2024)

I was very asexual, christian, & sex repulsed. Why was this any of his business? I will never know. (June 27th 2019)

A frequent joke made by sour often referred to me as a Chinese Asian person, of which I am not. Not only did he frequently get this wrong, but he continuously made racist remarks towards Chinese people while he was trying to make fun of me and my last name. He has my full name, he understands I am Hmong, I have made this clear to him many many many times over the years.

My paypal link was sent to him in 2022 regarding a commission he asked me for. I also had to ask him IN DMs to stop referring to me as Donkey Kong but replacing “Kong” with my last name that is spelled very similarly. He would often refer to me as Donkey K*last name* during smash rooms we had open to make me tilt. He would insinuate I am a primate due to my last name, and mock my culture.

Screenshot taken today (September 27th 2024), the chat is still up. I really don't want to show my paypal link because it has my real name attached to it. It also happens to start with a K and end with a G, so it was a very low hanging fruit on the joke tree. He managed to do this while fetishizing the fact that I am Asian.

Here is a screencap of the original message, the amount of asian & black pointed jokes from Sour in VC was overwhelming. I was the only Asian person present out of the group, with the only other POC frequenting the server were Sour & Chip (Mexican & Native American-Mexican respectively).

I never felt comfortable bringing these screenshots or documentations up until recently when Jackpot's racism was treated in a serious manner. While I do not represent all Asian people, I feel this behavior was very unacceptable, and I have no reason to believe this behavior would have stopped no matter what I said. Perhaps many will see it as ragebait, although after it happens in hours upon hours of calls, across games & weeks it really wears you down over time.

Not only that, but as a fellow BIPOC, how can you excuse these jokes? Just because they don't impact you directly, doesn't mean it won't come back to harm you or your loved ones.

Here is the screencap: (November 1st 2019)

In case anyone doesn't know, Sour knows where I live. He knows the city, and the state. He also knows where I used to work at my last job & joked about stopping by at the front desk in VC(I was an administrative assistant) to flirt with the "cute" receptionist. (I started in 2020 for reference, just quit march of 2024). I was a very stupid young person that thought he was my friend, and that this info would never be abused. NEVER SHARE INFO ONLINE. Please.

Screenshot with timeframe:

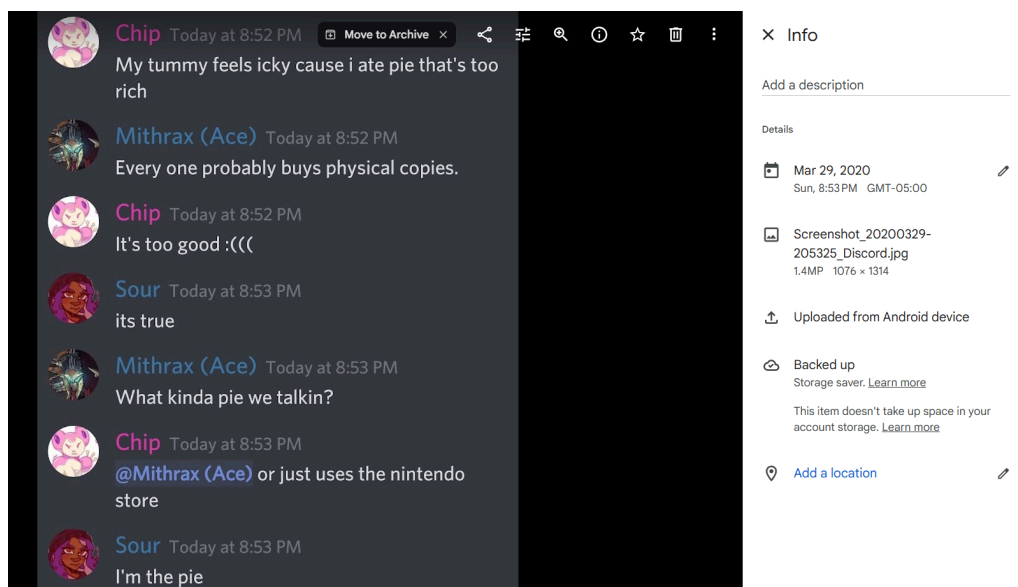

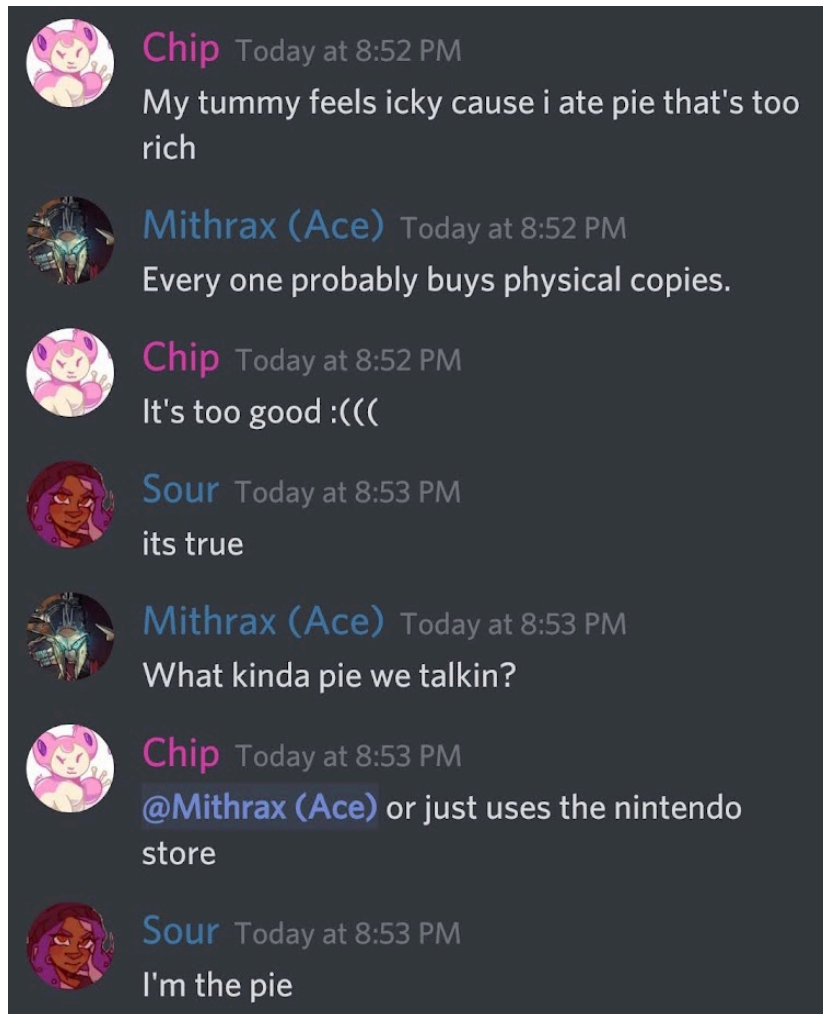

Sour never kept the same energy with anyone else. The minute I suggested we share profile pictures, or be silly and pretend to be anything more than platonic, he'd jump to it. (December 15th, 2019)

Another joke insinuating his wanting to marry me, months after I stopped goofing off. I once again found out he was not MTF in August 2019, this was more than enough time for him to end this behavior. I was genuinely talking about marrying my partner Chip (aka Soda), and even listed their last name in red here. I had even told Sour throughout multiple conversations the venues where I wanted to have the ceremony, and that he along with some other internet friends would be invited. (March 8th, 2020)

Before I banned Ace (for a second time, this was in the new server on his second account), I was minding my business, but everything I say has to turn into a joke about being intimate with Sour. For reference, I am almost always pink on discord servers. I also drew that skitty. (March 29th, 2020)

Intimacy was a very hot topic in this server for Sour & his friends except myself, Chip & Endy. Griffin had exited the scene before the pandemic, as well as mostly everyone else. Morgana listed here is Sour. (April 28th, 2020)

Sour referencing fighting me in Super Smash Bros Ultimate where he frequently compared me and my family to the Kong Family from Donkey Kong. (June 21st, 2020)

Over time his interactions with me became less flirty and more aggressive, likely due to me not putting up with it for long anymore.

(November 10th, 2020)

Nvm he came back with his Classic Line I would hear every time I dipped into a discord call with him. Shmeht below recalls that this happens enough for him to notice. (February 5th, 2021)

Sour mocking my favorite emotes, business instagram taglines while insinuating he wants me to break up with Chip & stroking his own ego.

Everyone is wondering why he would pretend that I would break up with Chip, even going as far to mention the “Genuine Lila”.

(February 5th, 2021)

Sour acknowledging that I am “Allergic to Sex” Aka Sex Repulsed. He understands I am asexual, and I had made it clear I did not consume

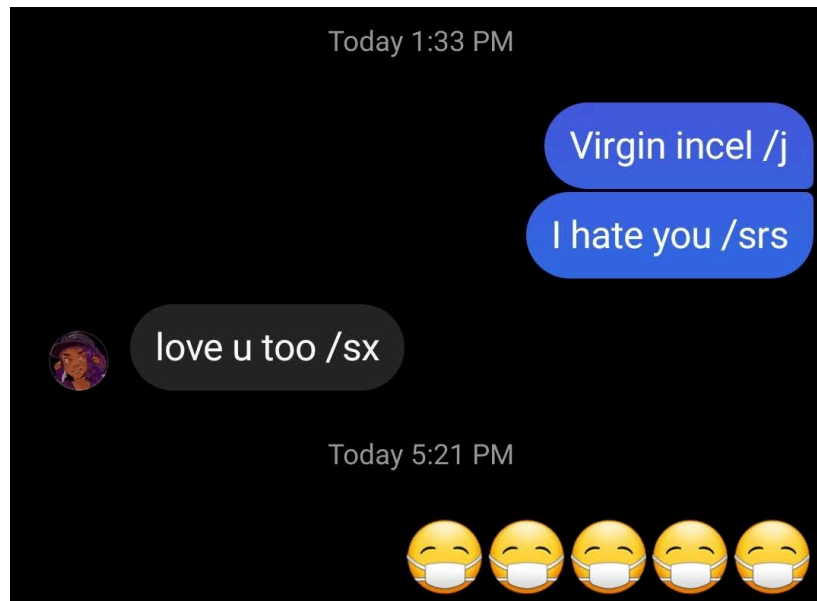

NSFW or any media from the sex work industry. He continued to pester me with NSFW related material, and disrespected our server's wishes to keep things SFW as there were also minors present.

(February 5th, 2021)

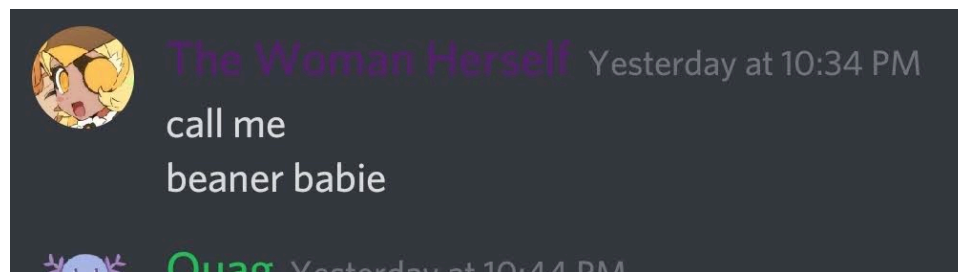

I made bad taste jokes until around 2022 towards men about “Virgin” status. Compelled by my parental units, my apologies to anyone that experienced this from me. Regardless, here is sour once again joking about Sex, mocking tone indicators when I was genuinely using them. I still use them to this day as I have trouble indicating my tone and intentions with my text and speech often. He knows this. (April 22nd, 2021)

//TRIGGER WARNING - SLUR // May 1st 2021

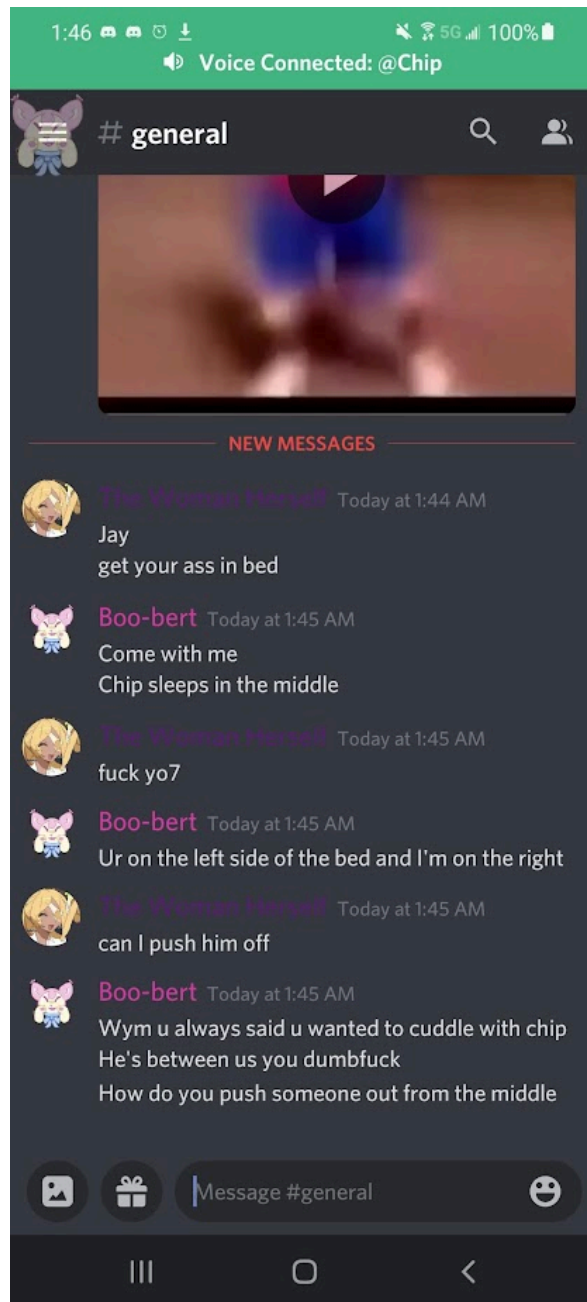

Sour and Chip are both Latino, this is confirming despite Sour being a POC he continued to be racist towards Asian & Black people frequently.

I began attempting to play along with Sour's jokes again, while constantly dragging Chip (aka Soda) as a barrier to keep Sour from acting creepy. He still directly opposed Chip in these jokes, and made it very clear he did not appreciate me trying to make it about anyone but him.

(May 1st 2021)

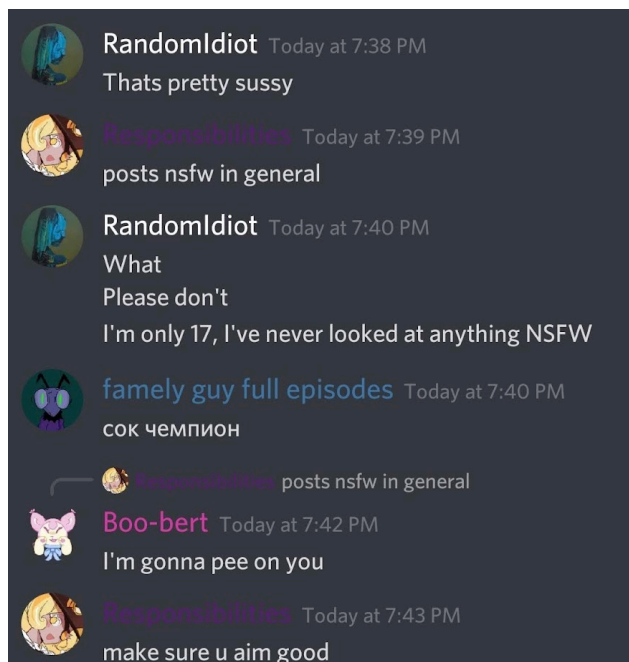

The fabled “Breadman Confesses” screenshot. Once again, this was around 6-8 months after Sour had joined our friend group, and never corrected us on our questions towards his gender. Since day one I knew Sour as She/Her, and most of everyone presumed She was MTF.

(Sent by Sour on May 6th 2021, image from August 2019)

A poor attempt at humor on my part, in response to Sour mocking the NSFW rule (May 6th 2021)

Sour being rude until I make a poor attempt at humor only for him to turn it into a darker situation. Almost as if he knew how much I disliked and protested his unconsensual sexual advances? How odd. (May 6th 2021, earlier in the day)

Regardless of how the joke was in poor taste, this was the energy of the server. We were goofy until sour showed up and made everything sexual and directed towards myself, rarely any other feminine presenting members as they would leave fast enough for him to forget about them.

(May 7th 2021) – Sour not represented in this screenshot.

Another feeble attempt to get Sour disinterested in me. I once again, was a foolish teenager.

(November 5th 2021)

While this has been a while in the making, I understand it has been a while. Please bear with me, I have not had a safe environment to live in since the pandemic occurred, and I am just recently recovering from a concussion.

The purpose of this document is to call to light the sketchy behavior that Sour has consistently displayed to myself and various other members of our old friend group.

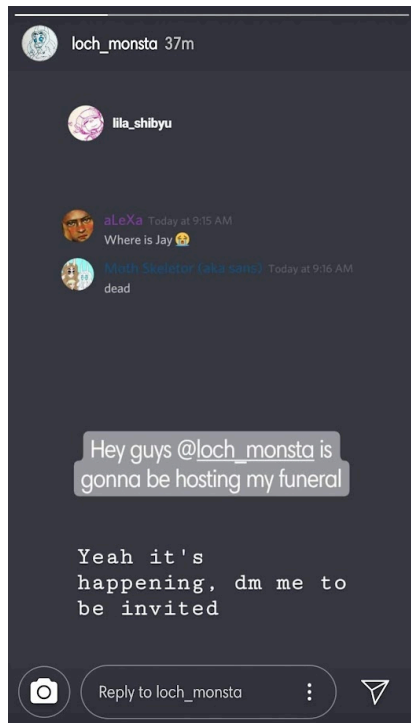

To Nathan, I truly wish we could have been friends. I genuinely thought we were, only to find myself being ghosted after many years of what I originally thought were friendship. You ghosted me because I refused to continue playing into your toxic behavior. I hope you learn and grow beyond this version of you I once knew.

To everyone else, I urge you all to respect yourself and your own privacy. I wish I had spoken up years ago, unfortunately I did not feel safe to. Please be sure to never allow anyone to speak to you or treat you in this way. Even if you think they are a friend.
