

Title: Boy + Bot by Ame Dyckman and illustrated by Dan Yaccarino

Possible Learning Activity

Standard:

CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RL.3.6

Distinguish their own point of view from that of the narrator or those of the characters.

Learning Goal:

Students will make connections to the text by explaining their point of view from that of the character in the story

Learning Objectives:

Students will choose one character from the story, and using a graphic organizer, will write whether they agree or disagree with their character's view on friendship and why, using direct quotes from the story (Cognitive)

Learning Outcome:

Students make connections to the text by explaining their point of view from that of the characters in the story.