A HACK OF JOHN HARPER'S LASERS & FEELINGS
CREATED BY BRANDON LEON-GAMBETTA & JAMES MALLOY

"There are things you must do, when you are small, to appear big"

SPECIAL THANKS...

To luchadors for filling our hearts with courage

To authors for filling our minds with mice

Aesop, Beverly Cleary, C.S. Lewis, E.B. White, Robert C. O'Brien, and (my favorite) Brian Jacques.

To John Harper for filling our game nights with Lasers & Feelings

And to our playtesters and collaborators for filling our game with rules

Erin Leon-Gambetta, Kevin Kiprovski, Mark Zurek, Phelipe Fernandes

Hi there!

Welcome to the Luchadoratón playtest document! This is obviously a very early version of the game and doesn't currently contain any GM advice or some of the things you'd expect to have on it! All the same, I wanted to release it publicly so that people could offer critiques about how the game itself runs. If you've got big, tiny adventures in mind for your lucha-mice, jump on it!

If you read or play Luchadoratón, I'd love to hear about your experience! Please, please, please tweet me @bleongambetta or if you have more lengthy thoughts email me at stophackandroll@gmail.com. Besides, it'll stick your name in that dedication and everybody likes having things dedicated to them.

I look forward to hearing from you!

Luchadoratón is created by Brandon Leon-Gambetta (@drcaptainkobold) and James Malloy (@AndTheMeltdowns). It is a hack of Lasers and Feelings by John Harper, an excellent game with way fewer wrestlers and mice.

Yet To Come: The World of Luchadoratón

LUCHADORATÓN

THE WORLD IS A DANGEROUS AND SCARY PLACE FOR UN PEQUEÑO RATÓN. LUCKILY THERE ARE THOSE WHO WOULD MAKE THINGS BETTER, SAFER, MORE EPIC. YOU ARE ONE OF THOSE, A MOUSE WRESTLER WHO HAS TAKEN THE MASK TO PROTECT YOUR FAMILY, YOUR WAY OF LIFE, AND YOUR CHEESE. TIME TO GET IN THE RING.

PLAYERS: CREATE MICE

- Choose a style for your lucha:
Lucha Jr, Monstro, Mouscarita, Rudo, Técnico
- Choose a theme for your lucha:
Calavera, Dragon, Military, Santo, Snake,
- _____
- Describe your...

_____ Ears

_____ Mask

_____ Tail

CHOOSE YOUR NUMBER FROM 2 TO 5

Low number means you'll be better at Mask (fighting, lifting things, being your lucha).
High numbers mean you'll be better at Mouse (sneaking, hiding, nature stuff).

CHOOSE A CUTE OR FIERCE NAME

You have: a lucha mask (and a belt or cape if you'd like it), and some props

GOAL: Win Title Belt, Get Lots of Cheese, Get Famous, Explore the natural world, Fight big beasts, or Keep fighting

ROLLING THE DICE

When you do something risky, roll 1d6 to find how it goes.
Roll +1d if you are prepared and +1d if it ties into your mask.
Roll your dice and compare to your number.

If you're using Mouse, you want to roll low (mouse is small!)
If you're using Mask, you want to roll high (lucha is big!)

0: If no dice succeed, it goes wrong.
Shift your number away from your intended result.

1: If one die succeeds, you barely make it. Subtract one from your courage or barely make it.

2: If two dice succeed, you do it well.

3: If three dice succeed, use your signature move and tell us about it.

LUCHADORATÓN!

If you roll your number exactly, Tell us how you perfectly balance mouse and mask. Count as a success, gain 1 courage, and (choose 1):
-Create an opportunity, take hold of something, or frighten your opponents

COURAGE

Courage is your measure of how much you are bravely doing what needs to be done, mouse or mask.

All Luchadoratónes start with 2 courage. If you spend a bit of time to heal up, recuperate, etc, you may raise up to 2 courage if you are below it.

HELPING

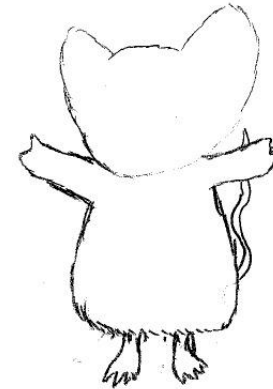

If you want to help someone else, who's rolling, say how you try to help and spend a point of courage. They roll with +1d.

If you are above 3 courage, you may also spend a point of courage to pump yourself up. You roll with +1d.

IMAGE MOVES

When you comfort another mouse you may raise their number.

When you praise another mouse's fighting you may lower their number.
