Dark Knight trilogy compliant with some comic aspects thrown in as well (new 52 exempt). mainly headcanon based. i am happy to explore the animated series and some comic aspects, as well as Suicide Squad (to a fault), Gotham, and Batwoman. mostly headcanon based. his general verse typically falls between Batman Begins and the Dark Knight Rises.

RULES

GENERAL. this will be a mutuals only blog. i'm open to most fandoms, and i especially love OC's! i'm generally a pretty busy guy as a standard rule. i treat RP as a hobby, and i won't be around as often as i'd like to be.

THREADS. i match my partners in format and length as best i can - but in regards to length, i tend to get a little bit wild. don't be surprised if i get excited and respond with a couple paragraphs. you are by no means expected to match my length. unless otherwise plotted and specified, under no circumstances are you to godmode my character.

NSFW; SMUT & SHIPPING. my otp is muse/chemistry. don't be afraid to come to me if you'd like to start our muses off with a pre-established relationship! i'm more than happy to discuss this prior to threading. do not force your ship on me. i will never force a ship on you, so i require the same courtesy please. i'm 28, so smut is fine but i will typically fade to black before anything really gets too detailed.

NSFW; TRIGGERS. this blog will most certainly be triggering. i will tag things accordingly and use read more's where necessary, but for smut threads i will merely be tagging it as 'NSFW ////' unless there is touchy subject matter involved (so as not to get my blog flagged). see triggers below.

VERSES

THE SHOW MUST GO ON. default verse for new followers (unless otherwise specified). Joker has escaped from Arkham and is currently living in Amusement Mile. tread lightly. he doesn't very much like to have unexpected visitors.

RAT IN A CAGE. Joker is under the care of top doctors at Arkham... and yet he's taken a particular manipulative fancy to one doctor, Harleen Quinzel. won't take long for him to win over her little heart and get her wrapped around his finger.

JACK FELL DOWN. Jack is married with a child on the way-- but he's a gambler and an alcoholic, and finds himself getting into more trouble than he can fathom. working as a standup comedian doesn't pay the bills, but he knows he'll make it big one day. if the loan sharks don't get to him first.

TEENAGE DIRTBAG. Jack is a punk teenager that gets himself into trouble. half the time he's out and about in the streets to avoid his father's rage. he drinks, he smokes, he breaks into homes and steals. he's just an all around nuisance.
