About 137 St NW, Edmonton, AB

Stretching through one of Edmonton's most accessible and lively corridors, 137 St NW connects several vibrant neighborhoods and community landmarks that reflect the city's diverse character. This area offers a perfect blend of convenience, local culture, and modern living—making it a well-loved part of Edmonton's growing north side.

Just minutes away, you'll find friendly neighborhoods like Spruce Avenue, Queen Mary Park, and Elmwood Park, each offering its own unique charm and sense of community. The nearby Blatchford Areas bring a touch of innovation and sustainability, transforming Edmonton's old airport lands into a modern, eco-friendly residential hub.

Running close to major routes like Highway 2, residents enjoy quick access to surrounding areas, including Alberta Avenue, known for its rich arts scene, local dining, and community events. The area's convenience is supported by essential services such as Canada Post, ensuring reliable connections for both residents and businesses.

For those exploring Edmonton's cannabis scene, well-known destinations like Spiritleaf Sherwood Park and other local dispensaries highlight the city's growing embrace of quality cannabis culture. And with Brentwood Blvd and nearby commercial spots offering everything from dining to shopping, 137 St NW remains a prime spot for both locals and visitors who appreciate accessibility, community, and growth.
