The meeting was called to order at 6:18pm on Saturday, September 29, 2018

1. Nathaniel Cradle called the meeting to order. A brief discussion and recap of the last meeting held on June 29, 2018 (financial standing, building business relationships, enrollment).
2. Next Discussion – Completion of the new CCRC website (90%) done. Will be complete in 2 weeks from September 29th2018. This website will outline the importance of additional services to be offered through the CCRC. This non-profit was formed in conjunction with VFS Prep. Service will detail the importance of EQIT and how Jacci will offer coaching and training. In addition, the website will offer the opportunity to help other centers with grant writing, which will be used to help increase quality across the board.
3. Next Discussion – Grants that we will engage during 4thQ and the beginning of next year. The discussion on (what role will these grants will play?)
4. Next Discussion – Jacci will put together a list of professional contacts with local colleges (CCA, CCD and ACC) This was a topic that we want to continue to discuss, as the importance of creating these contacts can be paramount in the development of our future with early education.
5. Next Discussion – How EQIT training can be optimized within the center and how staff can benefit from having a coach within arm's reach.

6. Next Discussion – The goal of creating tangible items for children (e.g., the writing kits, reading kits). These kits will support our effort to formally introduce our desire to spearhead projects that will expand children’s learning, as it relates to literacy.
