Honors Rock Band Summer Recommended Listening:

Led Zeppelin-Live At Royal Albert Hall-1970. One of the greatest live performances of all time from the incredible Led Zeppelin. Quite early in their career, but overflowing with creativity, power, and grace.

Radiohead - In Rainbows From the Basement (April 2008) A phenomenal performance of their amazing In Rainbows album captured beautifully.

Top 10 Greatest Live Music Moments in History A cool run down of some very important live performances.

Best Live Vocals (Female Artists) Some amazing vocal chops and creativity on display.

Rooftop Concert - The Beatles The amazing rooftop performance that is the culmination of the one of a kind Get Back documentary.

Sia- Chandelier SNL Isolated vocals : What to listen for: Unbelievable vocal control. Her ability to add rasp/distortion/gravel and rag out her voice at will is almost uncanny. She also wrote tons of pop hits for other artists before launching her own performance career.

Johnny Cash- Live at Folsom Prison Amazing, gutsy performance in a prison. Johnny Cash was punk rock before there was punk rock.

The Strokes- The Adults Are Talking - SNL First live SNL back from covid. Great performance. Listen to how all of their parts fit like perfect puzzle pieces. Julian's vocals soar at the end when he saves his final gear for the climax.

Nirvana- Unplugged Man Who Sold The World Phenomenal performance of a David Bowie classic. If you haven't seen this entire Unplugged, do yourself a favor and check it out.

James Brown '68- Cold Sweat Incredible band. James' vocal stylings, funk, and dance moves have been copied ever since. Notice the multiple drummers. Super Funky!!!

Black Sabbath '70- N.I.B. Live Black Sabbath inventing heavy metal in real time. Ozzy's voice is in top shape. Notice how great the melody is on the bridge. Ozzy's love of The Beatles is a big reason why the Sabbath bridges are so good.

Bjork Live on Jools Holland- Joga Amazing orchestra backing up one of the greatest voices we've ever heard. Her intonation, creativity, and control is other worldly.
