HISTORY

 'Syringe' was born on May 30th, 1997. She was always very close to his family members. She had a Mom and dad named STOP ASKING And one sister. She had a Dog named 'Robin' that She was very close with and was his comfort friend! At around the age of 7, she went with her family to a major league baseball game. She was very excited to go as she has never been to one before. It was the Yankees vs The Dodgers. She went and had a blast until an Announcement was made " Hello everyone, Please evacuate the building in a nice and calm manner. There has been a bomb threat within the building, and we must ensure the building is safe." His parents looked at her and his sister and said " We got to go". They exited the building, but due to them being police officers, they decided to go help. Claire had tried to get them not to go, however, they had still gone, and died, along with a few other hundred people.

She did have His grandparents alive, so She did say " If I don't come back, I love you." She then gives a hug to his grandmother and grandad. Then heading to the location She was requested to go by his recruiter to the airforce.

She was on a 2-hour plane ride from California to Las Vegas. Once arrived She was sent to boot camp. for about 6 months. At the time She had just turned 18 when She signed up, so she was still really young. After 6 months of both learning how to fly and learning how to shoot and aim a gun. She was sent to his first mission.

* In the room*

" SOLDIERS! It is time, we have gotten a report of a recent kidnapping of a member of the military. The base is located in the Alps, so we are going to need air support to get a helicopter up there. That's where you come in "Syringe", you will be flying a Jayhawk to head up to a landing pad nearby. Get ready soldiers, we're leaving in 30."

"Syringe" gets packed up, and gets in a helicopter. It's her first mission and she is nervous. She flies up to the landing pad.

She hops out and so do the soldiers. She looks away for 10 minutes to get ammo, she then hears a loud scream. She quickly hides, inside the helicopter.

When it stops, She heads back. A tall white man is there. She looks away scared and heads back.

She then sees a helicopter with a weird logo, with goggles, placing a bag on his head.

They look at Her

" What did you see?" The Foundation members say.

" Uh, who are you?" "Syringe", says.

" That is not for you to know." The Foundation member says."

They quickly shoot a tranq arrow at her , bringing her back to the base, giving her 'Class-C amnestics' making her forget about the white man, and making her think they all died by someone else. “Syringe” still does not know about this to this day.

At the age of 19, she was promoted to the rank of '1st Lieutenant' in the United Nations Air Force. She was a 1LT for 4 months about to be 5 months, the Foundation Recruitment looked at her for a possible chance in the foundation. One day when “Syringe” was sleeping, she woke up to a The Foundation Member said, " WAKE UP." She was confused as to where she was " Uh. Where am I? What do you want.." “Syringe,” said.

Foundation " No Worries, we are not here to hurt you. We are interested in you, for recruitment for our Organization."

“Syringe" Can I get some more info?"

Foundation " We, the SCP Foundation, are a secret organization, Securing, Containing, And Protecting, any known usual activity. We call them 'Anomalies'.

“Syringe”: " And you want me here because?"

Foundation " We believe you can be a great soldier. Of course, you would have to go through the ranks here, but Once you do this, you can be, and possibly be a great Soldier. Do you wish to try the interview?"

“Syringe” Sure...”

The interview went well, and his Killhouse time was 11 seconds. She was brought in as a Security Cadet, being promoted to Officer, then went to Mobile Task Force Unit Epsilon-11 Designated 'Nine-Tailed Fox.' Being Promoted all the way to LCPL within week/2 weeks. She was then looked at by the O5 Council for a position as a member of 'Alpha-1 Red Right Hand'. She succeeded in the phase and was brought in for one day, being kicked out and Class-C Of all info of it. She went back to E-11, then applied for a Position as ECA, Being removed in 2 weeks, for unprofessionalism. She went to Nu-7 and then Joined Beta-1 hitting all the way to CSG. She then went to Omega-1 'Laws Left Hand', was promoted all the way to LCPL, and then applied again for a chance at being an Assistant to the Ethics once more.

She had passed the application and had been an ECA. She had stepped down From Omega-1 a few days later, however.

About 1 month later, after being on Site-56 (Now known as Site-65, but problems with reality ended up changing it.) for a while, she would decide to put in a transfer for Site-65. It would be accepted. However, put down all the way to Combat Medic. She would then get promoted all the way to Alpha-1 'Red Right Hand' SPC. Under the Codename again “Syringe”. But then step down after Wanting to focus on Medical and ECA.

She would apply for ECA And get accepted

But she then tried Leaving the SCP Foundation. But knowing the foundation it is always challenging to Leave. She is invited back by Medical Director 'Dinklesprinkle' to come back as a Medical Consultant.

Claire would then be promoted to Site Advisor by Site Director Gregory McCain, then 3 weeks later promoted to Site Manager by Site Director Broda Kagen.

When Site Director Broda Kagen, unfortunately died, Claire worked closely with her new Site Director, Jimmy Wrecking. Unfortunately, Jimmy would step down, along with her other Site Manager Athena being promoted to the Ethics Committee, Site Manager Claire is currently the only Site Manager Remaining on Site-65, until a member of the Overseer Council chooses.

Unfortunately, Claire Had to resign due to unknown reasons, and went back to her regular reality, and became a Nu-7 'Hammer Down' PVT, working all the way up to LCPL, and then being ranked skipped to SGT.
