

Over the last two weeks, we have been considering our identity as children of God (1 John 3:1). As God's children we are to exhibit His character and nature.

We looked at how we do this by being:

- lights in this dark world (Philippians 2:14, 15)
- holy and living in the fear of God (1 Peter 1:14-19).

This coming Sunday (19 Nov) we will reflect on another aspect of being children of God: A Father's Discipline. (Hebrews 12:4-11). Please meditate on this passage and come prepared to share.

Some questions to help:

1. How, why and when does God discipline us?
2. What does God's discipline indicate?
3. Who does God discipline?
4. Have you experienced God's discipline? If so how?
5. What is the result of God's discipline?
6. What if you've never been disciplined by God?

Feel free to add your own insights.
