

Lead Authors: David A., Gabriel O., Marissa A.

Please check the DSA-LA Member Discussion Board for Lead Author contact information.

Develop publicly owned infrastructure in the city and shift away from fossil fuels by creating alternative and equitable green energy sources.

- Creation of a Los Angeles Public Bank with ample funds to build green, equitable infrastructure for the public good.
- Build city-owned municipal enterprises and expropriate corporations in key industries – such as those that fulfill essential community needs like housing, grocery, restaurants, and internet – to increase public ownership and bring more jobs into public employment.