r/AllOutPraise Community Guidelines

Welcome, beloved! Whether you're here to lift your voice in praise, share gospel fire, or learn about the legacy of Gospel music—this is holy ground. 🙌 Please review and honor these spirit-led rules to keep our community peaceful, powerful, and pleasing unto the Lord.

Show Respect and Kindness

Treat every member with love, respect, and charity.
We're a family in Christ—disrespect, rudeness, or hostility won't be tolerated.
 Violations may result in removal from the community.

Focus on Gospel Music and Praise

Share only what uplifts the soul: gospel music, testimonies, praise & worship, artist stories, or faith-rooted inspiration.
Off-topic or secular posts will be removed to keep the Spirit flowing.
 Keep it holy, keep it focused.

No Hate Speech or Discrimination

No racism, no sexism, no phobia of any kind. Period.
This is a safe space for all of God's children.
 Any hate will lead to immediate removal—no second chances.

Respect Copyrights and Share Legally

Honor artists and creators by sharing their content the right way.
No pirated music, no stolen visuals, no shady links.
 Keep it legal, keep it righteous.

No Spam or Excessive Self-Promo

We love to see your gifts—but don't turn the sanctuary into a billboard.

Only share your content if it adds real value and blesses others.

 Spammy posts will be swept away by moderators.

Be Truthful and Sincere

Come as you are—but speak with truth, love, and realness.

Don't mislead, lie, or manipulate.

 Honesty is holiness.

Avoid Personal Attacks

Disagree with ideas, not people.

No name-calling, no mockery, no low blows—this ain't the place for it.

 Personal attacks = moderation action.

Respect Privacy

Do not share other people's personal info, messages, or identities without clear permission.

 Privacy violations will be taken very seriously.

Respect Moderator Decisions

Our mods are here to keep the peace and protect the purpose.

If you're corrected or asked to revise, receive it with grace.

 Repeatedly ignoring mod decisions will result in action.

Uphold the Spirit of Community

Let every comment, post, and reaction flow from a place of unity, joy, and mutual praise.

 This space exists to glorify God and encourage His people—don't stir division.

Reporting Violations

If you see anything that doesn't align with these rules, report it.

Choose a clear reason so our team can respond quickly and fairly.

 Together, let's protect this sacred space.

 Thank you for being part of this gospel-filled movement. Let's stay prayed up, praised up, and full of love as we go ALL OUT for the Lord!
