

Radiant Neon FAQs

In 2024, Radiant Neon underwent many changes - here's some frequently asked questions:

1. Do you still offer your neon date night?
 - a. Yes! We are reintroducing our Neon Night Out beginning December 2024. Booking details will be on the website.
2. Do you still offer neon classes?
 - a. No. We no longer offer Neon Newbies or Light Lab. Classes and workshops may be revived in the future, but for now Alleson does not have the bandwidth.
3. Where are you now?
 - a. Vashon Island. Alleson now operates Radiant Neon from her home studio on Vashon Island.
4. Is your Studio Open to the Public?
 - a. No. Visits to Radiant Neon are now by appointment or event specific only. Again, it is now my private home studio and drop ins are not an option. We are open for the following recurring events: Biannual VIVA Studio tour and the Dockton Art Walk Labor Day weekend.
5. Can you make me a...
 - a. No. For now, I am not accepting custom work requests. I am focusing on my art practice and building my body of work.
6. What about repairs?
 - a. No. Currently not accepting repairs. But if you'd like a recommendation I'd be thrilled to direct you to another fabulous neon shop.
7. Is your art for sale?
 - a. Yes! All neon I've ever made is for sale, please consider supporting my practice and scooping up your very own neon.
