"I used to hear people tell me that I was "One" with the Universe, but I never really understood what they were talking about. After my first ESC with Dr. Dain, I now KNOW it in every fiber of my body and being! I never would have believed it's possible to feel this way. Thank you."

You hold such a huge space of possibility for us, for humanity. Your deep commitment to people unapologetically living from their innocent, wacky, unabashed, bright and beautiful Selves is palpable and your energy truly contagious. I can't find words to describe the experience of being at the class, but as I awoke this morning I felt a lightness and an acceptance of myself that certainly hasn't been there before. There is more spaciousness and peace. Something is different...I like it!!!

Thank you for being you, Dain. Keep shining bright!

In what was intended to be an introduction to the Access Consciousness, I felt as if we were given the keys to eternal joy, peace and riches – and maybe some magic. We were presented with a set of tools and ideas with which to change our lives – and the world. These ideas were simple, yet powerful. Some of the concepts revolved around things feeling – “lighter or heavier”, “POC and POD”, and “asking a question”. There were also demonstrations of healing that were quite profound and all throughout the evening there was this incredible feeling of tranquility, joy and mysticism.

I had a feeling we were really just skimming the surface of what is possible and I was already anticipating my next class. Dr. Dain Heer was amazing as he presented with heart, love, humor and depth. He had an intuitive sense of exactly what was being needed by our group. I look forward to “playing”, again and again with Dr. Dain and all the other beautiful souls.

I'm in this for LIFE.

Your live ESC was more than my body could hold. I cried, laughed, enjoyed, changed and then all of a sudden became this great expansion of me that covered the entire word. In that moment the feeling of oneness was reached. It was so huge, indescribable and at the same time magnificent. My heart is so deeply touched by our collective evolving, by our souls meeting here and sharing this journey with you.

My entire life I knew that I had something to offer, yet the fear of not being good was so strong that my contribution was minimal. After today I feel that more doors are ready to be opened and that the essence and uniqueness of me will reach the masses.

Thank you so much for your magnificence.

I have spent a great deal of my life feeling very uncomfortable about myself, very unsure of myself and making myself wrong at every available opportunity. The biggest thing I've noticed that I've gotten about me after this class, is actually how much I really love life & living! How happy I truly am! How light I truly am! How much energy & exuberance I actually have! And here I was thinking that I didn't actually like living that much – not true!

I look about ten years younger than I did last week and I've been jumping around like a Mexican jumping bean wondering what's possible now with all this energy I have! How does it get any better than that?! This is what it is to BE ME...and I like it...a whole lot!!

– Naomi

Okay..soooo..WOW!!!

I have been on THE table...& life will never be the same again!! How does it get any better than this? YOU have totally rocked my world!! YOU have allowed me the space to rock my own world!

This works!! And I am SO grateful for that!! I have ME like never before!! Now what else is possible? How do I even begin to thank YOU for everything you BE? I'll tell you... It's how I take the tools and share them with my own world! Tiny ripples on the pond of consciousness... charging all that comes into its path!
