

Notice of Privacy Practices Effective Date: 09/01/2025 At Georgia Senior Friends, we respect your privacy and are committed to protecting your health information. This notice provides a summary of how we use and protect your information, in compliance with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA). Your Information We collect personal and health information to provide quality social and medical support services. This may include your name, address, phone number, medical information, and emergency contact details. How We Use It We use your information only for: - Coordinating and providing services - Communicating with you or your authorized representatives - Meeting legal or regulatory requirements Sharing Your Information We do not sell or share your information for marketing purposes. We may only disclose your information when: - Required by law - Necessary for treatment, payment, or healthcare operations - You give written permission Your Rights You have the right to: - Access your records - Request corrections - Ask for limits on how your information is used - Receive a list of certain disclosures - File a complaint if you feel your privacy rights have been violated Our Responsibilities We are required by law to keep your information private and secure. Our staff is trained on HIPAA regulations, and we maintain safeguards to protect your records. Contact Us If you have questions or want to exercise your privacy rights, please contact us: Georgia Senior Friends Phone: 470-456-5783 Email: georgiaseniorfriends@gmail.com

Name_____ -

Signature_____

Date_____