

Krembil/SickKids NMH Collaborative Studentship Award
2026 Application

Award

- ☐ The Krembil/SickKids NMH Collaborative Studentship Award is a two (2) year award to support the salary expenses of new or existing PhD students who are under the co-supervision of a Krembil Brain Institute -appointed researcher AND a SickKids Neurosciences & Mental Health (NMH)-appointed researcher.
- ☐ Two awards will be given during this competition – one working primarily at UHN and one at SickKids—who are mentored by principal investigators at both institutions. Students do not need to be formally co-supervised; they only need to be engaged in a collaborative project..
- ☐ Each award is valued at $20,000/year; Year 2 funding will be contingent on a progress report outlining collaborative activities.
- ☐ The term of the award is September 2026–August 2028.
- ☐ Funds will be administered either at the University Health Network (UHN) or The Hospital for Sick Children.
