

PATREON FAQ

PATREON ART STREAM SCHEDULE: SUNDAYS & WEDNESDAYS FROM 6-8PM (PST)

Q: What is Patreon?

A: Patreon is a website sort of like Kickstarter where you can pledge any amount of money you'd like to support your favorite content creators, and get rewarded in return! Patreon is slightly different from other crowdfunding sites in that you get charged every month instead of once, sort of like a monthly tip jar to help your favorite creators make a consistent living. But since you get charged more than once, the rewards will also keep coming for as long as you are a "patron!" It's win-win for everybody!

Q: How will I be charged?

A: I've decided to use a monthly payment system, since my content spans multiple platforms and is produced often, but sporadically, thus paying once per month for all content instead of per individual project makes the most sense! You will be charged your pledged amount at the beginning of each month for as long as you are my patron, and rewards will be distributed once payment is complete. NOTE: If you wish to delete your pledge and get charged for another month on accident, I am happy to issue refunds via PayPal!

Q: Can I stop pledging whenever?

A: Yes! So long as you aren't canceling immediately after your first pledge without paying a cent (because that's theft) you are completely allowed to cancel your pledge anytime you need to if your financial situation changes, or if you just get sick of me! I completely understand. This is also how most people prefer to use commission tiers--by pledging for one month and then lowering or canceling their pledge after they've gotten their artwork! You're not obligated to pledge for more than one month. But you can if you want to, of course! NOTE: If you are a commission-tier backer, please do not reduce or delete your pledge until after you have received your commission that month! Otherwise, you will not be listed among the other commission-tier backers on Patreon and may not have access to the private art stream or your downloads.

Q: How and when will I receive my rewards?

A: That depends on the reward! For all artwork, file downloads and livestream announcements, links or direct downloads to everything will be posted on my Patreon page's creations and activity feed as they are completed. Of course, you can only view certain content depending your pledge level. Check back often! These rewards will update sporadically on my activity feed as I complete things. NOTE: For tiers $30 and higher, you will not have access to your reward until AFTER you make your first payment at the start of the next month!

PROMO/PUBLICITY BOOSTER: I will be sending a google form to your Patreon inbox to fill out by a certain due date if you'd like to claim your promo reward for that month. You may boost ONE url a month, and may also provide an optional custom banner to go with it (no bigger than 540x80 pixels, please!). NOTE: Since this reward group follows a tighter schedule, please pay attention to your patreon inbox!

ART COMMISSIONS: I will be sending you a google form for you to fill out at the start of each month, instead of having you sign up directly before art streams. This way I can complete everyone's commissions, even those who are unable to attend streams due to schedule conflicts. I will do my best to ensure you are present and attending the stream before I draw your commission so you can see it live. NOTE: Please complete and submit the commission form as soon as possible, since art streams start immediately after pledges are charged each month!

Q: When will you be doing streams?

A: Every Sunday and Wednesday from 6:00pm-8:00pm PST. This schedule is subject to change based on the schedules of my patrons or what happens during my week, but I will ALWAYS try to ensure that missed streams are made up for whenever possible. I will post the stream link on my patreon feed when it goes live. DO NOT SHARE THE LIVESTREAM CHANNEL LINK WITH NON-BACKERS! NOTE: Please check my Patreon feed for up-to-the-minute news on postponed or cancelled streams.

Q: What activities will we be doing during your streams?

A: I will be spending most streams drawing art requests for $50+ backers! Now and then I may mix it up with something fun like art critique or games, but for the most part you can count on watching me draw, sometimes with the mic on and sometimes with special guests!!

Q: What will my art requests look like?

A: They will be sketches done in either Photoshop or Sai, and look kinda like this!

For DaftHappiness

For Phosphorical

For DepotHime

KyleHunkar

For SoulFire

to: DepotHime

For Ashu

For Craft

Q: What are the limits to what you will draw?

A: Please understand that I will not draw NSFW. There are few things I won't draw besides that, but on the rare occasion that I feel your request is too offensive or is just beyond my current skill set, I will contact you about changing your commission.

Q: Can I repost any of the works you post here?

A: Noooo! Please do not! Posting my works outside of patreon jeopardizes my ability to provide patrons with exclusive content. I will have to have your posts taken down and I'll probably kick you off of my patreon. Please respect my wishes and do not repost!! But if it's art you personally commissioned, you can do what you want with it and post it on your sites, just so long as you give me proper credit and it's not used for commercial purposes.

Q: What about art commissions? Can I color a commission I got from you and post it?

A: You may color and post your art commission if you like! But please be sure to credit me and link back to my patreon if you do so!

Q: Can I use my commissioned art in my banners/icons/etc on social media?

A: Yes, with credit, please! If you commissioned it, it's YOURS to do what you want with, as long as it's not commercial use!
