Principal's Report

- Amazing staff that has been helping keep the school clean.
- Middle school Social studies projects were a hit (living wax museum, country reports) Parents came in to see and we had a great turn out.
- Winter Carnival was fun with great sportsmanship.
- Middle school is going to be starting reading buddies once a week with the K-1 students.
- Robotics club has started (9 students participating) it is on Mondays and Tuesdays and the kids love it.

ESSER

- Using around $20,000 for cleaning supplies
- We will have around $80,000 left
- The challenge is that whatever we do has to be spent by September 2024
- This year we have a math consultant this year
- Possible one year math intervention position
    - The math position would help with learning lost
- Pavillion
- Storage shed
- Social worker

Lauren motions to approve a math interventionist for one year only using ESSER funds pending the grant approval.

All security cameras have been updated and are working great.
Security film should be complete by next school year.

Privilege of the Floor #2
Public: Can people join us by zoom?

Other schools have but not many people have attended zia zoom.
The selectboard does zoom. They use an external mic and then post them on youtube. County Commissioner meetings are on zoom. Plymouth State University donated a computer to the selectboard.

Public: The presentation at Warren was really good and we haven't heard of any other initiatives. The group has a lot of resources. This year the voters have become more educated about how schools are funded.

Public: How do we set the salary for the math interventionist?
The school would plan on the higher end of the hiring contract, but the cost would depend on experience.
