The Diamond Dozen

I am building a fabulous team. Here are the qualities that I am looking for in my team:

- 1. Women who already know that God intended for them to have more.
- 2. Women who value education and training.
- 3. Women who can embrace Mary Kay's philosophy of God first, family second, and career third. Also the Golden Rule treat others the way you would like to be treated.
- 4. Women who can get excited about positively impacting women.
- 5. Women who are willing to work to increase their financial situation.
- 6. Women who have or want a high degree of independence.
- 7. Women, who are willing to be part of a team, love to create a positive environment and have a will to win.
