

Morgan

Description: American breed of horse.
Developed in colonial times. Valued for their looks and versatility.

Characteristics: Large body, neck set high on sloping shoulders, averages 14-15 hands

Color: Black, Chestnut Gray, Piebald, less common colors are gray, roan, dun, silver dapple, cream dilutions like palomino, buckskin, cremello and perlino

Sources:

Susan McBane, (2008). Illustrated Encyclopedia of Horse Breeds.

<https://www.horsebreedpictures.com/>

