

Name_____

Which essay # are you analyzing? _____

INTRODUCTION

HOOK. Is there a general statement? Can anyone engage with it, even people who have not read Romeo & Juliet ? If they DO have one, write in the box. If they DO NOT have one, write NO in the box.
INTRO TO LITERATURE. Does the writer introduce the author and title of the work?
THESIS. Tell us what number question this person is answering, and what their answer is.
ROADMAP. How many body paragraphs will this essay have? What will the first one be about?

BODY PARAGRAPH #1

CLAIM. Is there a claim that matches the roadmap? If there is, write it in the box.
DATA. Does the writer use quotations from the text? Is it cited correctly (Act, Scene, Lines)?
COMMENTARY. Does this writer effectively explain why this data goes with the claim?
CONNECTION TO THESIS. Go back to the thesis. Does this paragraph help argue what the person's thesis is?

FORMATTING/SPELLING/GRAMMAR

List any formatting, spelling and grammar errors that you found: