

CAMQG February Meeting
Feb 18, 2020

Karen called the meeting to order at 7:00 pm. We started with Sew and Share.

Door prize drawing – Beth won!

Sew Day – Saturday, March 7 from 9:00 – 3:00. If we don't get 10 people we won't have it. If you are intending to come, make sure you sign up. The cost is $10 for lunch. Bring fabric for pillowcases, can precut them at home. Karen will send an email with information.

We still need people to sign up for Member Spotlight – lots of spots available! Should we call it Member Spotlight/Member Update?

Treasurer's Report: $2,651.65 at the end of January, then sent $480 in dues to the national guild. With a few other beginning of the year expenses, as of today we have $2,171.65

If you have not yet filled out a membership form, please do so and turn it in to Debbie.

Cindy – make sure you can log into the member resource center of the MQG. You can print out your membership card. Tomorrow evening you can watch the Quiltcon ceremony live online on the website or on MQG social media. Can also offer ideas for next year's charity quilt. Cindy is also interested in compiling guild history so if you have anything ideas, please contact her.

Lancaster MQG is having a speaker March 6 - 7

Colonial Quilters Guild Quilt Show – Bethlehem May 2 - 3

York Quilters Guild Quilt Show - May 29 – 30

Boiling Springs Quilt Show - June 6

York Salvation Army sale – raise money for their children's programs – you can donate any craft supplies, fabric, books/patterns, etc. The same will be June 18 - 20

Lancaster swap – sign ups will be in May and June. In June matches will be assigned and you will find out what their favorite colors are. Need name, email, Instagram handle and favorite colors. Modern design, no bigger than 24 x 24. Quilts will be due in September. Could we do a face-to-face exchange?

Reminder: In January 2021 we will be displaying some of our work at the Cornerstone Coffee House in Camp Hill. Pieces will be due in December, no more than 24" x 24". You will have the option to sell it. Just keep it in mind!

Micah offered the program on the gridded quilting that we were so interested in from her member spotlight last month.
